

Coogs nip women's tennis team 5-4; Aggies now 7-8

Coach David Kent gave a totally accurate description of the Aggie women's tennis team's performance after its loss Tuesday to the Houston Cougars.

"We came within an eyelash of winning, but they were just a little bit better," Kent said. "The team played much better than it has in a long time, and it was against a good team."

And a good team it is. Houston's record, 12-3 for the season, seems to belong in a different league than that of Texas A&M, which has a 7-8 overall record and a 2-2 conference record.

But the Aggies split six singles matches and dropped two of three doubles matches to lose by only one, 5-4. Texas A&M lost both No. 1 matches, as Lili Fernandez lost to UH's Margaret Redfearn 6-1, 7-6, in singles and the pair of Maylyn Hooten-Pam Hill lost the top doubles match to Redfearn and Mary von Tungen 6-3, 7-5.

Kent said that Amy Closs, who defeated von Tungen 3-6, 6-4, 7-6 in the No. 2 singles competition, played well and "kept her poise the whole match."

Other scores from the Texas A&M-UH competition:

— Joy Tacon (UH) def. Pam Hill 6-4, 6-7, 6-1
— Cathy Tyrell (UH) def. Teresa Landry 1-6, 7-5, 6-4
— Laura Hanna (Texas A&M) def. Kim Gensler 6-4, 6-3

Rockets edge Dallas, 99-95

HOUSTON — In these times of mounting playoff pressure, Houston coach Del Harris was relieved to come out with a victory over the Dallas Mavericks Tuesday.

"Let me start by simply saying that a win is always nice, even though it may not look so pretty," Harris said of Tuesday's 99-95 victory. "I was very concerned about this game because we were just returning from a very productive road trip and the tendency is you don't play your best game."

His concern was unwarranted, as Moses Malone scored 38 points Tuesday night, two of them on a 12-foot jump shot with 20 seconds left to play, and grabbed 20 rebounds.

Elvin Hayes added 27 points, including two free throws with one second left, and 14 rebounds.

Jim Spanarkel led the Mavericks with 21 points coming off the bench.

Rangers dropping catcher

United Press International
ARLINGTON — The Texas Rangers Tuesday sought permission to give John Ellis his unconditional release from the club, although the catcher-first baseman will remain with the Ranger organization in the minor leagues and as a scout.

Ellis, who began his career with the Yankees in 1969, has a .262 lifetime batting average, but hit only .138 in 23 games with the Rangers last year.

ENGINEERING MAJORS

Why did you choose THIS school?

- Challenge
- High Standards
- Diversity
- Reputation

It shouldn't be any different when choosing a company!

Middle South Services is one firm that covers all those bases and more. We're the technical and service arm of the Middle South Utilities System, dedicated to developing alternative energy sources to free the Gulf Coast from the whims of the foreign oil exporters. Our sophisticated projects, which run the gamut from coal and electric to nuclear, include the "Six Pack," a group of 800 megawatt coal/lignite-fired power plants, the PWR and BWR nuclear plants and more. And they all require the talents of creative, technically-oriented engineers. Since we believe we can find those people right here on campus.
