Quirks in the News

Cabby rewarded

United Press International
MILWAUKEE — Cab driver Mohamed Yusuf proved there still honesty in the world.

Yusuf found a purse on the back seat of his cab after he dropped off a Maryland couple one day last week. Inside he found $7,000 in cash, jewelry and travelers' checks.

He turned the purse over to the doorman at the hotel where he picked up the couple.

"I'm glad I saw it because another passenger could have taken it," said Yusuf, 33, who came to Milwaukee from Somalia five years ago and has been a cab driver four years.

In a short time, the purse was returned to the woman, who had called the hotel about it.

Yusuf said the couple gave him $50 for his honesty and the next day he took them on a shopping trip and they gave him a $30 tip.

No nuclear news
United Press International
HARTLAND, Wis. — The town's 4,300 residents can breathe more easily knowing they are in no danger from a nuclear power plant 200 miles away.

Residents got packets in the mail about what to do if there is an emergency at Northern State's Prairie Island nuclear power plant in Red Wing, Minn. The packets should have gone to the town of Hartland, Minn., but someone gave the computer a wrong ZIP code.

"We goofed," said a second letter from Northern State, Minn. "Recently you received nuclear emergency planning information about our Prairie Island nuclear power plant in Red Wing, Minn. An incorrect ZIP code fed to a computer resulted in the mixup."

"The fault was ours and we apologize for any confusion we might have created," said Peter Vanderpol, a spokesman for the utility, said a private computer mail firm in Minneapolis made the mistake.

Highway plane
United Press International
ERWINVILLE, La. — A pilot got out of a jam by landing his out-of-fuel plane on a highway, but his plane got in trouble with a giant 18-wheeler.

Pilot Walter Rivette Jr., 25, of Greenwell Springs, La., and a companion were flying over Pointe Coupee Parish when they ran out of fuel and decided to use Louisiana 190 west of Erwinville as an emergency landing strip, police said Tuesday.

Rivette landed the plane in the eastbound lane of the highway late Monday and the pilot and passenger were pulling it off the road when an 18-wheeler slammed into the plane.

No one was injured in the accident, state police said, but the plane was extensively damaged.

Spinach could be unhealthy
United Press International
WASHINGTON — Spinach can be bad for you under certain circumstances, the Agriculture Department says.

A department scientist said Monday eating spinach with a high-fiber diet can reduce the body's supply of zinc, a mineral essential for normal growth.

The scientist said the problem is uncommon in the United States, but it could be a dietary problem in less developed nations where diets are normally high in fiber and greens, such as spinach.

Appearing at a meeting of the American Chemical Society meeting in Las Vegas,
