Campus Theater 846-6512

Sharkey's Machine: Burt Reynolds is Sharkey, a detective who has been promoted to the vice squad. He's still out to get the city's ominous and anonymous crime czar, known only as "The Ace." R.

An American Werewolf in London: If you don't go for the story itself, go for the special effects — it won an Academy Award for best makeup. R. Midnight Friday and Saturday.

Manor East 823-8300

Chariots of Fire: The Academy Award winner for best picture. It's a touching story of two men's quest to run in the 1924 Olympics. PG.

Making Love: Kate Jackson and Michael Ontkean star in a film that follows young couple's problems after the husband confesses his homosexuality. R.

House of Wax: Vincent Price stars as a wax artist who gets revenge in a bizarre way, by dipping his enemies in wax. And all in 3-D, too. PG.

Monty Python's Life of Brian: Brian is born in a manger a short distance from and about the same time as Jesus Christ, and is continuously mistaken for the Messiah throughout his life. PG.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-2916

The French Lieutenant's Woman: A story about a movie within a movie starring Meryl Streep and Jeremy Irons. R. Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

The Fan: A suspense thriller about a deranged fan. Starring Lauren Bacall and James Garner. R. Midnight Friday and Saturday in Rudder Theater.

The Sting: Two con men operate in and around Chicago circa '36. Starring the infamous duo of Paul Newman and Robert Redford. PG. Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

City of Women: A spell-binding display that is part burlesque, part satire and all cinema. Full of sexual fantasies and illusions. Unrated. Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

MSC Cepheid Variable 845-1515

The Fantastic Voyage: A shrunken submarine is injected into a man's brain to repair damaged tissue. Unrated. Thursday at 7:30 and 9:45 p.m. in 601 Rudder.

Plitt Cinema I&II: 846-6714

Porky's: The misadventures of six high school chums with an interest in drugs and sex. Another film about learning the facts of life. R. See review in this issue.

I Ought to Be in Pictures: A Neil Simon comedy starring Walter Matthau. PG.

Warriors: A New York gang flees from the other gangs intent upon destroying it. Midnight Friday and Saturday. Rated R.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: Rocky and company ham it up Friday and Saturday at midnight. R.

Schulman Six: 775-2468 or 775-2463

Victor, Victoria: Julie Andrews in perhaps her most challenging role. She plays a man — or is it a woman? Also stars James Garner. R.

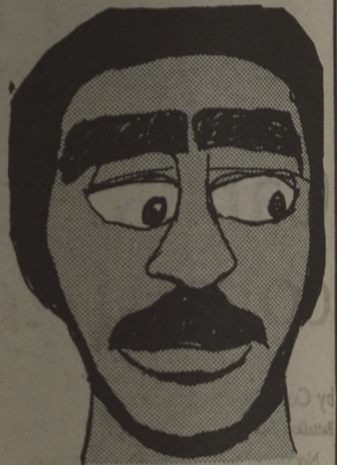

On Golden Pond: A couple marks their 48th year together during a summer stay at Golden Pond. Stars Academy Award-winners Henry Fonda and Katharine Hepburn. PG.

Raiders of The Lost Ark: Still hanging on after ages and ages. It's almost time for the Raiders' first anniversary party. PG.

Robin Hood: Walt Disney's animated story of the infamous Robin Hood, who steals from the rich to give to the poor. This may be a promising new economic theory. G.

Silent Rage: A karate flick starring Chuck Norris, a kung fu freak who loses his cool. Don't make him mad. PG.

Richard Pryor Live on Sunset Strip: Still the same old rowdy and rude Richard. And the same old laughs. R.
