Aggie pitcher Lori Stoll, who has a 13-3 record for the season, releases a pitch during her 3-0 victory Sunday against Arkansas. Texas A&M, 27-3 for the spring, hosts UTA Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. in Travis Park in Bryan.

McDonald, Stoll lead A&M past Minnesota

by John Wagner

Battalion Staff
After sitting inside on Friday and Saturday watching the rain fall instead of hosting the Aggie Invitational, Coach Bob Brock's Aggie softball team let off a little frustration Sunday.

The Minnesota Golden Gophers, in town for the tournament, went down in defeat twice to the Aggies, losing the first game of a double-header 14-0 and the second game 3-0.

With the tourney rained out, the two teams decided to play the games Sunday afternoon at a still rain-soaked Travis Park in Bryan.

Shan McDonald pitched a three-hitter for Texas A&M in the first game, but she was aided by an offensive attack that scored 14 runs on 19 hits.

Lori Stoll pitched a one-hitter in the second game and her teammates picked up three runs, all in the bottom of the fourth.

Stoll struck out nine batters and walked one, improving her record to 13-3. McDonald's record is 12-0.

Mary Lou Youngblood was 3-for-4 at the plate with 3 RBI in the first game, and Karen Guerrero was 3-for-3 and Carrie Austgen was 3-for-4 with three RBI. The Aggies scored seven runs in the fourth on eight hits.

In the second game, Youngblood was 2-for-3, and Roshele Friudenberg and Linda Lancaster had RBI hits. Iva Jackson scored on a passed ball for the Aggies' other run.

Brock said that although the team was disappointed about the cancellation of the tournament, the players made up for it against the Gophers.

"Minnesota has a good team, but they just caught us at the wrong time," Brock said. "We'd been cooped up because of the rain, and we were ready to play. Everything we hit dropped in. They just caught us at the wrong time."

Brock said he was pleased with the way his team hit the ball, and he said the fact that the players hadn't played in a while might have had something to do with their success.

South Carolina, which was entered in the Aggie Invitational, had to leave for home Saturday. Minnesota was able to stay and play both Sam Houston State University and Texas A&M.

The Gophers were 5-8 going into the double-header with the Aggies. Saturday, Minnesota lost twice to the SHSU Lady Bearkats.

The Aggies, now 27-3, host the University of Texas at Arlington at Travis Park Tuesday. The doubleheader against UTA begins at 4:30 p.m.

Howard, Phelan surpass field for triathlon titles

John Howard of Houston, winner of the 1981 Iron Man Triathlon of Hawaii, swam, ran and biked his way through a windy, wet Saturday to win the first Texas Triathlon.

Howard, 34, finished the 41-kilometer (25-mile) event in one hour and 38 minutes. The race includes a one-kilometer swim, a 10-kilometer run and a 30-kilometer bicycle ride.

Over 500 people from 11 to 61 participated in the competition, sponsored by Texas A&M University's Extramural Sports Club Association, the Bryan-College Station Chamber of Commerce and Schlitz Brewery.

Five-hundred contestants competed, including 392 men and 108 women.

Jacquie Phelan, 26, of San Francisco, posted the best time for women, one hour and 56 minutes.

The youngest participant was John Bravenec, 11, of College Station. The oldest were Oscar Carpenter of McQueen and Ben May of Lake Jackson, La., both 61.

Triathlon Director Tom Weis of Texas A&M's Intramural Recreational Sports Department, said: "Triathlons are really becoming popular, at least partially because of all of the attention generated by the Iron Man Triathlon in Hawaii. Many marathoners and other distance runners seem to find the triathlon particularly appealing."

Registration for the event was closed at 500, Weis said, and some people unable to enter this year submitted their names early for the 1983 race.
