Workouts end; countdown to alumni game continues

The offensive line has been a major point of concern for Jackie Sherrill during the Texas Aggies' five weeks of spring workouts.

In addition, the first-year Texas A&M coach says he needs more running backs to give his team depth in the backfield.

After Wednesday's full-contact scrimmage in Kyle Field, where the Aggie first team defeated the second team 42-7, Sherrill continued to express doubt about both spots. The scrimmage concluded the squad's spring workouts, with Saturday's alumni game at 6 p.m. slated as the climax.

Sherrill said that with the lack of depth at the running back positions, incoming freshmen backs will have excellent chances to prove whether they can contribute to the team when fall workouts begin in August.

Junior quarterback Gary Kubiak completed 20-of-28 passes for 193 yards and two touchdowns in the scrimmage, including a one-yard score by Don

Jones and a 12-yarder by Jimmy Teal. Kubiak, whom Sherrill has commended a great deal for his performance during the team's 19 spring workouts, scored a touchdown on a 36-yard quarterback keeper.

Fullback Earnest Jackson carried the ball 21 times for 145 yards and scored once on a 12-

Sherrill says he and his staff still hope to break the record spring game attendance of 30,000, set in 1981 by Notre Dame. Although only about 2,500 tickets have been sold so far, Texas A&M ticket manager Jim Kotch said sales should increase between today and Saturday.

"We expect a very good walk-up crowd Saturday because we sent out over 25,000 applications," Kotch said. "The big difference between a good crowd and a great crowd will be the Texas A&M students. If they show up in force, we'll have a good shot at breaking the record."

While students with a Texas A&M I.D. can attend the game without charge, tickets are $5 for adults and $2 for high school age students and younger. Tickets are on sale at the Texas A&M ticket office in G. Rollie White Coliseum, in Sears at Post Oak Mall, Montgomery Ward's at Town East Mall and at eight area banks.

Those unable to purchase tickets before the day of the game can buy them at the coliseum ticket window Saturday, between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

"We will have eight ticket sellers working the game and we normally use only three for a regular home game," Kotch said. "We are prepared to handle a very large crowd this weekend."
