One fugitive slain; Texans nab another

United Press International
MIRA, La. — A fugitive wanted in the abduction of a Missouri girl was shot and killed Wednesday by a woman who surprised him in her home, authorities say.

Texas authorities captured another convict, also wanted for questioning in the kidnapping, who escaped with the man.

Investigators identified the suspect through fingerprints as escaped convict Billy Dee Wilson, 27, Caddo Parish Sheriff Don Hathaway said.

Wilson was found shot to death on the living room floor of the unidentified woman, who grabbed her .357 Magnum when she heard noises in the house.

Caddo Parish Deputy Sheriff Mike Middleton said the man started toward her. The woman fired a shot, then fled with her two children to a neighbor's house. Deputies entering the home found the dead man. They said the suspect was probably the same man who was denied entrance when he knocked on the woman's door around midnight claiming car trouble.

Mira is 30 miles north of Shreveport.

Authorities in Bonham captured a convict Tuesday who escaped with Wilson from the Washington Parish Jail in Bogalusa, La., April 18.

Wilson and Roy James Hill, 35, were wanted by federal authorities for questioning in the kidnapping of Jennifer Barden, 9, from Gallatin, Mo. Saturday.

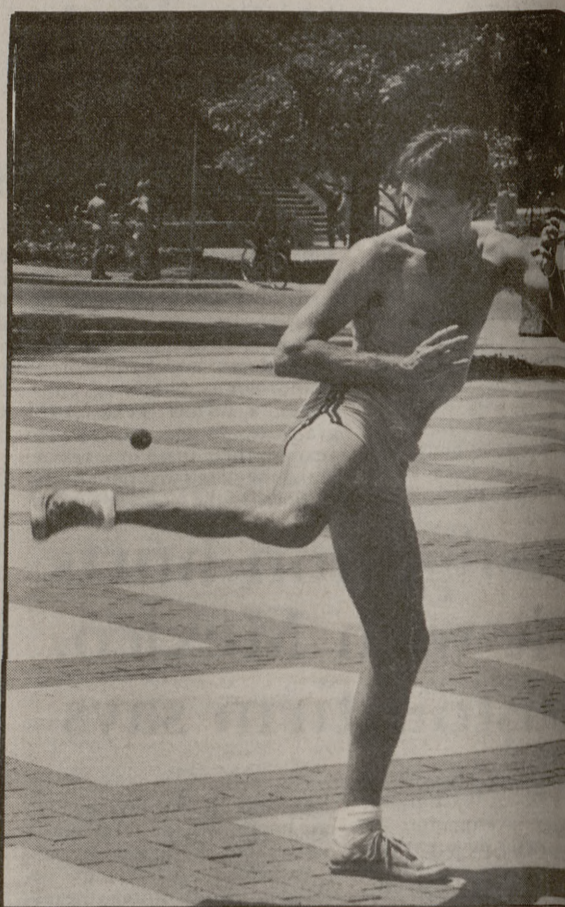

They are also suspected in a multi-state crime spree involving car theft, escape, evading arrest in Texas and burglary of a Savoy school.

Hill was captured in a 100-mph chase that ended when his stolen getaway car rammed head-on into a police vehicle in Gober, eight miles southeast of Bonham. Wilson escaped and was believed to have fled the Bonham area, which is about 200 miles from Mira.

Wilson was awaiting transfer to the Louisiana State Penitentiary for the rape of a girl, 8, and Hill was awaiting sentencing on several counts of burglary and a previous jailbreak.

Hill was being held under $100,000 bond in the Grayson County Jail.

Local and federal lawmen questioned Hill and searched his car, stolen from Ponca City, Okla., and bearing plates stolen in Nebraska. They declined to say what they learned about the whereabouts of the missing girl. She was last seen climbing into a green pickup truck after chasing a toy into a Gallatin street.

Judge turns down request for tapes of Chagra hearing

United Press International
SAN ANTONIO — Reporters will be unable to gain access to tapes of conversations between FBI agents and a suspect in the slaying of U.S. District Judge John Wood Jr., a judge has ruled.

Five newspapers and a radio station asked that the tapes be released. But in a nine-page opinion, U.S. District Judge William Sessions decided Tuesday against allowing media representatives to hear the tapes in a closed session of El Paso attorney Joe Chagra's hearing last week.

Chagra, 35, is one of five people charged in Wood's slaying outside his San Antonio townhome.

The conversations between Chagra and government agents were taped March 28, 1981.

Chagra's attorney argued that would hurt his defense if the tapes played in public. Media representatives attended case law required hearings to be open to the public.

Chagra has been jailed April 15 in lieu of $1.6 million bond on grand jury indictment charging he conspired to murder Wood, obstruct justice, evade income taxes and distribute drugs.
