Campus Theater: 846-6512. A Little Sex stars Tim Matheson (Otter from Animal House) as a successful commercial director who has trouble keeping his marriage vows. Rated R. For you x-rated movie goers Blonde Ambition is the midnight movie Friday and Saturday night. And at this rating, the blonde's career ambition probably isn't to be a doctor or an engineer.

MSC Aggie Cinema: 845-2916. Invasion of the Bee Girls is the first movie of Piranhacon III. A State Department agent goes to California to investigate a series of deaths brought on by sexual activity. The victims, men, are all connected with a government-funded research institute. R. Friday at 8:45 p.m. in the Grove. Cars that Eat People is a film about society being dominated by automobiles. In this case, it's Paris that is being eaten up, but who knows, College Station could be next. Friday at 10:15 p.m. in the Grove. In Truck Stop Women a bunch of gear-jammin' mamas, including Playboy playmate Claudia Jennings, play the hijacking game with the trucking industry. Friday at 11:45 p.m. in the Grove. The Fearless Vampire Killers stars Sharon Tate and Roman Polanski. Polanski is pursued by a homosexual vampire in this comedy-horror story. Friday at 1:15 a.m. in the Grove. The last show of Piranhacon III is to preserve his brain after his death. Somehow this evil brain wants Earth to be its servant. Watch out or, better yet, WAKE UP! Friday at 3:05 a.m. in the Grove.

Plitt Cinema I&II: 846-6714. Porky's is about the misadventures of six high school chums with an interest in drugs and sex. R. Hound of the Baskervilles is a comedy adaptation of the famous Sherlock Holmes tale. Dudley Moore and Peter Cook star. PG. Rocky and company ham it up in the Rocky Horror Picture Show Friday and Saturday at midnight. R. The Stewardesses is a stewardess training film — or how they really get their wings. All this and more in 3-D. (And for this you want glasses?) Friday and Saturday at midnight. R.

Schulman Six: 775-2468, 775-2463. Death Wish II, starring Charles Bronson, is a sequel to his earlier movie Death Wish. This time around, Bronson is seeking vengeance for the crimes committed against his family. Rated R. The Academy Award winner On Golden Pond is the story of a couple marking their 48th year together during a summer stay at Golden Pond. The Academy Awards were for best actor (Henry Fonda), best actress (Katharine Hepburn) and best screenplay adaptation. Also stars Jane Fonda. PG. Still hanging on after ages and ages is Raiders of the Lost Ark, which won an Academy Award for best film editing. PG. The Sword and The Sorcerer is a mystical film about, as the title suggests, a sorcerer and a sword. The plot thickens when we find out what the sorcerer does with the sword. It's probably not the same movie you might think — it's rated R. John Savage plays a computer technician in The Amateur. He gets into the espionage business in order to avenge the murder of his girlfriend in this thriller co-starring Christopher Plummer and Marthe Keller. R. Chariots of Fire is the Academy Award winner for best picture and is a touching story of two men's quest to run in the 1924 Olympics. Also chosen as Academy Award winner for best original score and best original screenplay. PG.

Skyway Twin Drive-In:

822-8300. If you want to know what Fury of Succubus is about, look up the word succubus in the dictionary and you'll have a pretty good idea. But if you're not that interested here's a hint: it's obscene. R. Final Exam has arrived just in time for next week. It's a horror flick about that dreaded time of year. Maybe you can pick up pointers on how to study. R. Taps, starring George C. Scott and Timothy Hutton, is a story about the devoted corp of cadets of a military school who take on the tasks of fighting off land sharks, while the outside world watches the confrontation with the news media. PG. Nine to Five's storyline is how three female secretaries try to conquer the injustices of a male dominated office. And they win. PG.

Post Oak Mall Cinema:

764-0616. Quest For Fire is the story of a prehistoric tribe and their slow transition into civilization. The characters act like real animals. One of Richard Pryor's better films, Some Kind of Hero, has him playing a POW returning from Vietnam to face nothing but terrible misfortune. R. Deathtrap stars Michael Caine, Dyan Cannon and Christopher Reeve in the film version of Ira Levin's Broadway smash hit. PG.

Manor East: 823-8300. Cat People is a remake of the classic 1942 film about creatures who transmuted from people to panthers. Natassia Kinski is a virgin who doesn't realize she's a cat person. But when she gets violent in the zoo, her origin is obvious. Starring Malcolm McDowell. R. Partners stars Ryan O'Neal and John Hurt as two people who work together as — partners. This rated R movie has a combination of sex, violence and of course, nudity. Paradise is a Blue Lagoon rip-off, this time taking place in the Middle East. Willie Aames (of Eight is Enough) and Phoebe Cates star in the romantic adventure story of the pair's travels across the desert and their "discovery" of each other. Rated R.
