

Graduation is a time to be shared with family and it's obvious that Carolyn Gose shares this feeling. After receiving her master's degree in Finance,

Gose stops to hug her uncle, Zerel Carpenter, head of the Department of Animal Science. Gose is from Sundance, Wyo.

Recently commissioned cadets Kenneth Avery of Dallas, right, and Greg Garbee of Houston watch as the 1982-83 Corps of Cadets makes its first official appearance during Final Review Saturday.

Graduation, commissioning and Final Review

... an end and a beginning

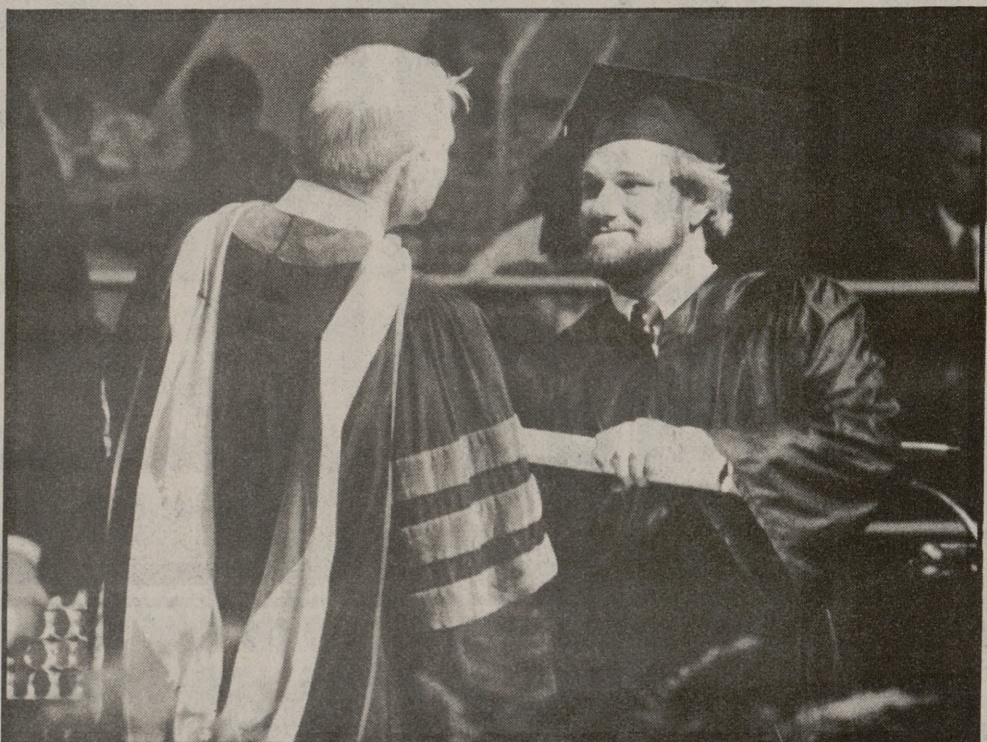

Staff photos by David Fisher and Jane Hollingsworth

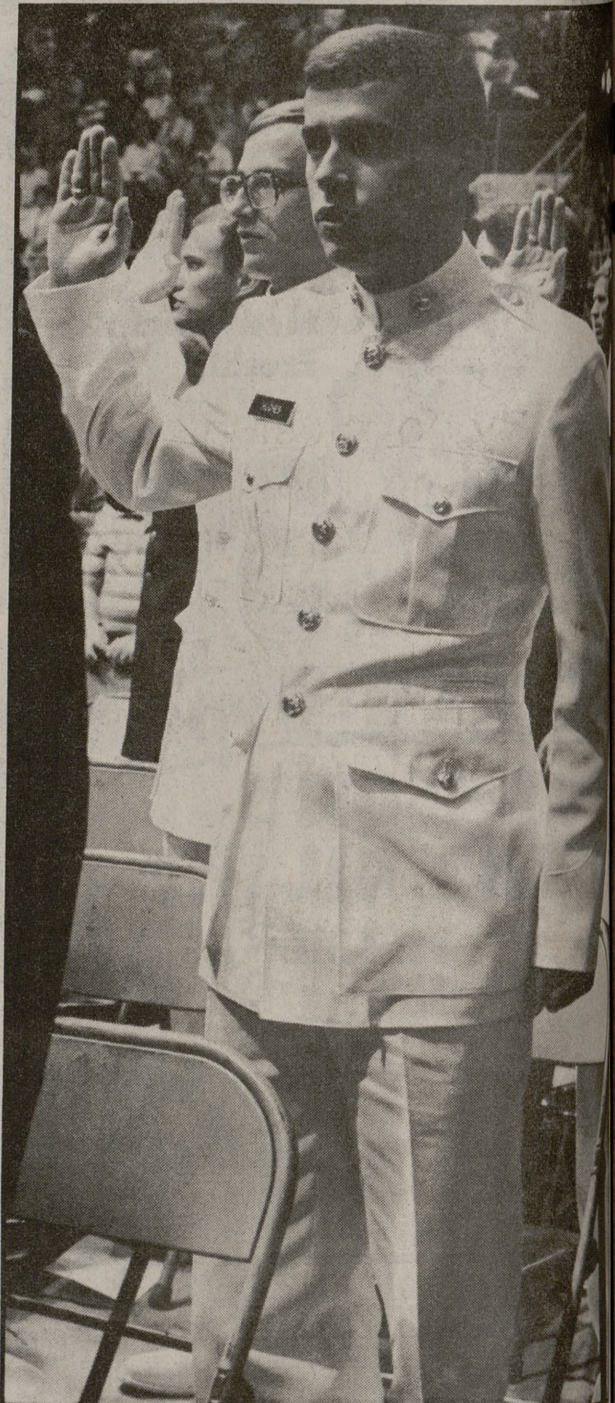

Waving diplomas was the thing to do during graduation this past weekend and Melanie Herring displays her style after receiving hers Friday. Herring of San Antonio, received a degree in Sociology.

The bugle rank of the 1982-83 Aggie Band stands at attention as the rest of the band plays "The Spirit of Aggieland."

A handshake from University President Frank E. Vandiver marks the end of four years of college for Kevin Brock of Spring. Brock received his bachelor's degree in agricultural economics during commencement exercises Friday afternoon.

Robert Earl Hughes takes the oath of office into the Marine Corps during commissioning exercises in Rollie White Coliseum Saturday. Hughes, who graduated Saturday morning, is from El Paso.