

Astros fall prey 10-0 on four-hitter

Expos follow the 'Lea' der in rout

United Press International
MONTREAL — Montreal's Charlie Lea likes pitching with a lead, because that way he can give his opponents enough rope to get the job done.

"When you have a lot of runs scored for you, you just go out there and try and let them hit," said Lea, who tossed a four-hit shutout to power the Expos to a 10-0 victory over the Houston Astros Monday night.

Lea, a right hander who had a two-hitter until the ninth inning, stretched his run of consecutive scoreless innings to 26.

"I had no thought of consecutive innings," he said. "I'm just trying to help the team win. I'm in a groove, and I have to keep it up. I have my confidence, and everything is falling into place."

Andre Dawson's two-run homer in the first inning and another two-run blast in the same inning by Tim Wallach had given Lea his room to work.

"Those are two of the best ones I've had here," said Wallach, who had another two-run homer in the fifth inning to bring his total to six. "It's nice to help the team out."

"There was lots of pressure on me last year because I had come up with 37 homeruns in AAA ball. But I got into some bad habits at the plate and this year in spring training I had to start from scratch. I shortened my stroke, and it has helped me to hit the ball hard."

Veteran Houston starter Don Sutton was quickly chased from the game by Expos' hitters, who jumped on him for six runs — five in the first inning.

The pummeling jolted his ERA from 1.96 to 2.66 and dropped his record to 7-2.

"What can you say about a game like that," said Sutton. "I'm a human being, and I guess there's going to be days like that. I had lousy locations with my pitches, but the Expos are a good ballclub and they can hit you hard.

"I hope it won't happen to me more than once in every two months."

However, the loss didn't have much in common with last week's matchup between Sutton and Lea. Sutton, who has a 17-

11 lifetime record against Montreal, lost that game when Lea pitched nine innings of one-hit baseball in a 10-inning contest won by the Expos 4-0.

"Last week was something else, but when you're 37-years-old, you don't have too many starts left," Sutton reflected.

Texas rolls past Eastern Michigan for CWS spot

United Press International
AUSTIN — Texas third baseman Milo Choate smashed in a bases-loaded triple in a seven-run second inning that powered the Longhorns to a 9-1 championship victory over Eastern Michigan in the NCAA Central Regional Baseball.

With the regional victory, top-ranked Texas moves into the NCAA World Series in Omaha, Neb. The Longhorns, 57-4 for the season, open Saturday afternoon at 5:10 by playing Oklahoma State, 56-14 and ranked No. 6 in the nation.

In the second inning, Mike

Brumley homered over the right field wall, scoring Choate and Spike Owen, who had walked. The seventh run of the inning came when Tracy Dophied walked, stole second, advanced to third on a wild pitch and scored on Mark Reynolds' ground-out to second base.

During the four games of the regional tournament, Texas rolled over its opponents, outscoring them 34-3.

Choate was named Most Valuable Player in the tournament.

Calvin Schiraldi went six innings for the Longhorns, allowing only six hits and one walk. Mike Konderla relieved him in the seventh, allowing one base runner the rest of the game.

Six Texas players were named to the all-tournament team — Choate, Hearron, first baseman Randy Day, shortstop Owen, designated hitter Reynolds and pitcher Roger Clemens.
