Veteran Carlton strikes out 16 in Philly victory

United Press International
After struggling earlier in the season, Steve Carlton seems to have regained the form that earned him three Cy Young awards.

Carlton scattered 10 hits and struck out 16 batters Wednesday night to lead the Philadelphia Phillies to a 4-2 victory and a three-game sweep of the Chicago Cubs.

"He had all his stuff together," said Phillies Manager Pat Corrales. "He's still a power pitcher."

Bo Diaz and Mike Schmidt hit home runs to back Carlton, who walked only two batters, to raise his record to 7-6. The Cubs have now lost 10 in a row.

The Phillies opened the scoring in the first inning when Greg Gross led off with a single, went to third on a Pete Rose single and scored on Gary Matthews' sacrifice fly.

Diaz hit his 10th homer of the year in the second to give Philadelphia a 2-1 lead and Schmidt hit his fifth in the fourth inning to make it 3-1. Both homers came off Chicago starter Ferguson Jenkins, 3-8.

The Phillies added another run in the eighth on walks to Al "Senior" Matthews and Diaz and a single by Garry Maddox.

In other NL games, it was Montreal 5, St. Louis 1; New York 3, Pittsburgh 2; Cincinnati 3, San Diego 3, and Atlanta 11, Los Angeles 5.

EXPOS 5, CARDINALS 1 — Montreal, Gary Carter cracked a two-run homer in the fourth inning and Bill Gullickson, 4-5, pitched a strong 8 2-3 innings to pace the Expos.

METS 3, PIRATES 2 — At New York, pinch-runner Rusty Tillman scored from third base on a fielder's choice with one out in the ninth inning to cap a two-run rally that gave the Mets the victory.

REDS 4, PADRES 3 — At San Diego, Tom Seaver, after one of the worst starts in his career, pitched eight strong innings to lead the Reds. The victory was his third in nine decisions.

BRAVES 11, DODGERS 5 — At Los Angeles, Biff Pocoreba went 5-for-5 and drove in five runs to back the pitching of Rick Mahler, who threw seven shut-out innings.

In the American League, Joe Nolan hit a three-run homer and singled in another run to help the Orioles complete a three-game sweep of Milwaukee with an 8-3 victory.

"It's about time I started hitting. It feels good to contribute."

Fairbanks' replacement hired at CU

United Press International
BOULDER, Colo. — The University of Colorado finally has a new head football coach. CU announced Wednesday that Michigan assistant Bill McCartney had been named the school's 20th head coach. McCartney said he hopes to build a team with intensity and pride, and field an offense with imagination.

"I think we'll do up an offense that has a lot of imagination and resourcefulness," McCartney said Wednesday. "I don't know the personnel very well and I don't know a lot about what they did in spring practice. I have a lot of homework to do."

The 41-year-old former Missouri linebacker served as defensive coordinator at Michigan and will replace Chuck Fairbanks, who resigned last week to assume the head coaching duties with the New York entry of the United States Football League. "Bill had impressive interviews with President Arnold Weber, a faculty committee, the CU Regents and me," said CU Athletic Director Eddie Crowder.

Fairbanks, who never had a losing season in six years at Oklahoma, led his team to records of 3-8, 1-10 and 3-8.

Reds pick Luecken; three sign A&M letters of intent

The Cincinnati Reds selected Aggie pitcher Rick Luecken in the 12th round of the summer amateur baseball draft, making him the third Texas A&M player chosen in the draft. Catcher Joe Szekely and pitcher David Flores were drafted during the top three rounds Tuesday.

Luecken, who compiled a 6-2 record and had a 2.65 ERA during the past season, had been drafted in the first round by the San Francisco Giants after finishing his high school career at Spring Woods High School in Houston. During his freshman year with the Aggies, Luecken had a 9-5 record and a 2.70 ERA, and during an injury-shortened sophomore season, the 6-5, 212-pound Luecken had a 5-2 record and a 2.86 ERA.

Luecken said Wednesday that he hadn't anticipated being drafted by the Reds.

"I was looking toward another organization, but the Reds picked me instead," Luecken said.

Luecken said he'd "rather not say right now" which club he had thought would draft him.

As a result of a groin injury during his sophomore season and arm problems during his junior season, Luecken said, he wasn't able to pitch as well as he hoped.

"I was hurt during the middle of two seasons," he said, "and that slowed me down a lot. But there's nothing you can do when you get hurt."

In other Texas A&M baseball news, Coach Tom Chandler has signed three recruits for the 1982-83 season.

First baseman-outfielder Mike Scanlin, from Houston Westbury, signed a letter of intent with the Aggies. Scanlin, a 5-11, 180-pound left hander, hit .434 during his senior season, and was chosen all-district, all-city and honorable all-Greater Houston.

Bubba Jackson, a catcher from McKinney High School, signed a letter of intent Wednesday. Jackson hit four home runs and hit .323 this season, and was named all-District 7-AAAA for the third straight year.

Switch-hitter Tim Cartright, a second baseman from Angelina Junior College also signed Wednesday after having been named to the all-conference team. Cartright, who attended Baytown Sterling High School, hit .347 this season.

said Nolan, who entered the game hitting .148. "I was struggling. I still am. One game doesn't take you out of it. But you have to walk before you can run."

Nolan looked like he was doing handstands as he staked the Orioles to a 3-0 lead in the second. He tagged starter Moose Haas, 3-3, for his first homer of the season. His blast over the right-field wall followed a walk to Jim Dwyer and a double by Cal Ripken.

Baltimore chased Haas with a five-run sixth. Ken Singleton led off with a single and, with two outs, Dwyer walked. Both scored on Ripken's second double of the night.

In completing the sweep, Baltimore won its fifth straight. Mike Flanagan won his fourth straight game, raising his record to 5-4.

In other games, Kansas City beat Minnesota, 8-5, Oakland nipped Chicago, 5-4, Boston edged New York, 3-2, Seattle outlasted Texas, 4-3, in 11 innings and Toronto beat California, 5-4. In a double-header, Detroit beat Cleveland, 2-1, in the first game and the second game was suspended after 14 innings due to the AL curfew, tied at 3-3.

ROYALS 8, TWINS 5 — At Minneapolis, Amos Otis hit a three-run homer and George Brett drove in two runs with a double and triple as Kansas City extended its winning streak to eight games.

A's 5, WHITE SOX 4 — At Chicago, Tony Armas hit a three-run homer in the eighth inning, snapping a 2-2 tie and helping Oakland break a five-game losing streak.

RED SOX 3, YANKEES 2 — At Boston, Reid Nichols scored one run and singled in another to lead the Red Sox to their fifth straight victory and hand New York its fifth straight loss.

MARINERS 4, RANGERS 3 — At Arlington, Richie Zisk singled in Manny Castillo from second base with one out in the 11th for the Mariners.

BLUE JAYS 5, ANGELS 4 — At Toronto, pinch-hitter Al Woods' RBI groundout with none out in the ninth capped a two-run rally for the Blue Jays' victory.

TIGERS 2-3, INDIANS 1-3 — At Detroit, Toby Harrah belted a two-run homer in the eighth inning of the second game to tie the score, 3-3. The game will be resumed Aug. 24. In the opener, Jerry Turner cracked a two-run homer in the seventh and Jack Morris pitched a seven-hitter to lead the Tigers.
