Griffey's homer sparks Yanks past Boston

United Press International
With the trade deadline rapidly approaching and the hated Boston Red Sox in town, the New York Yankees finally found some motivation.
Ken Griffey's two-run homer off reliever Mark Clear capped a three-run eighth inning Tuesday night and gave the born-again Yankees a 5-4 victory over Boston, their second straight over the leaders of the AL East.
"I was just trying to keep the rally alive," said Griffey. "Clear got me out with about the same kind of pitch in Boston last week. It was just a matter of time before I would start hitting."
Griffey, who has hit .400 over the last seven games, has been plagued throughout the season by surgically repaired knees and, most recently, a hamstring pull.

Held to only five hits by Bruce Hurst and trailing, 4-2, after seven innings, the Yankees began their comeback when Dave Collins led off the eighth with a double and scored one out later on a single by Andre Robertson. Griffey then followed with his first Yankee Stadium home run.
Rich Gossage, who relieved Tommy John in the seventh, held the Red Sox to one hit over the final 2½ innings to register his third victory in five decisions. Clear, who relieved Hurst after Collins' eighth-inning double, was charged with his second loss in seven decisions.
In other AL games, it was Milwaukee 6, Baltimore 3; Kansas City 7, Minnesota 4; Toronto 2, California 0; Texas 5, Seattle 2; and Chicago 7, Oakland 0. Detroit at Cleveland was postponed by rain.

BREWERS 6, ORIOLES 3 — At Baltimore, Robin Yount drove in four runs with a homer and a triple and Bob McClure and Jim Slaton combined on a seven-hitter to spark Milwaukee.
ROYALS 7, TWINS 4 — At Kansas City, Mo., Willie Aikens drove in three runs with three singles to propel the Royals, giving rookie pitcher Bud Black his first major-league victory.
BLUE JAYS 2, ANGELS 0 — At Anaheim, Calif., Dave Revering crashed a two-run homer with one out in the ninth inning to break a scoreless tie and help Toronto snap a three-game losing streak.

WHITE SOX 7, A's 0 — At Oakland, Calif., LaMarr Hoyt fired a three-hitter to become the first 10-game winner in the major leagues. Hoyt, 10-3, broke a three-game losing streak and lowered his ERA to 2.24 with his first complete game of the season.
In the National League, Jason Thompson worked out a flaw in his batting stance Tuesday night and the New York Mets were floored in the process.
"I was swinging too hard and picking my head up," Thompson said after he blasted a three-run homer and drove in five runs, backing the 10-hit pitching of Rick Rhoden and leading the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 13-3 rout of the Mets.

Thompson's 14th homer of the year capped a fifth-inning outburst off loser Charlie Puleo, 5-4, and reliever Pat Zachry. Thompson hit a two-run double in the eighth.
Rhoden, 3-6, went 2-for-4, including an RBI single. The right hander walked three and struck out two in his first complete game of the year.
Thompson was pleased to see the Pittsburgh hitting attack improve.
"It's (the pitching) been carrying us the past two weeks, because we haven't been scoring as many runs," he said. "It's great to see it come around."

New York manager George Bamberger wasn't as pleased as Thompson.
"It was bad," the manager said. "It looked like we were going to win at first. Unfortunately, that changed."
In other games, Chicago stopped Philadelphia, 8-5, St. Louis nipped Montreal, 3-2, in 11 innings, Los Angeles blanked San Diego, 3-0, and San Francisco defeated Cincinnati, 4-3.
CUBS 8, PHILLIES 5 — At Chicago, Leon Durham's two-run single highlighted a four-run fifth and Jay Johnstone belted a two-run homer to lead the Cubs. The loss was the Phillies' fourth straight.

CARDINALS 3, EXPOS 2 — At St. Louis, Willie McGee's RBI single with one out in the bottom of the 11th lifted the Cardinals. Bruce Sutter, 5-3, pitched the final two innings for the victory.
DODGERS 3, PADRES 0 — At San Diego, Jerry Reuss, 7-5, fired a six-hitter to end his three-game road losing streak, and Ron Cey belted his sixth homer of the season to lead the Dodgers.
GIANTS 4, REDS 3 — At Cincinnati, rookie Bill Laskey combined with three relievers on an eight-hitter and Chili Davis scored two runs and drove in another to lift the Giants.

Two Houston businessmen purchase Rocket franchise

United Press International
HOUSTON — Car dealer Charlie Thomas says his purchase of the Houston Rockets with promoter Sidney Shlenker will not change the club's attitude toward star forward Moses Malone.
"There's a contract on the table to him. We certainly want him, but I think the ball is in their court," Thomas said after announcement Tuesday that he and Shlenker had agreed to pay between $11 and $12 million in cash for the National Basketball Association franchise.
The selling owner, The Maloof Companies of Albuquerque, N.M., offered Malone — last year's NBA rebound leader and second leading scorer — a $1.6 million-year contract at the last minute before Malone became a free agent two weeks ago.

Malone's agent, Lee Fentris of Washington, D.C., is reviewing the contract and its many options. He has not contacted the Rockets to say whether Malone will accept it.
If it is rejected, Fentris will seek a better contract from another NBA team and if he gets one, the Rockets may match it and retain Malone.
Thomas, 50, is the owner of a Ford dealership and board chairman of Great Southwest Bank. He gave no indication Tuesday that he would do anything other than retain Malone.
Thomas disclosed that he purchased 90 percent of the Rockets while Shlenker, the owner of Pace Management and a stage play producer, bought the other 10 percent. Shlenker, 45, also is a former president of the Houston Astros.

A future contract with the cable television company for showing Rockets games was a "very big factor" in the purchase, Thomas said.
"I thought it was a tremendous opportunity," he said.
Thomas said he had signed a letter of commitment Tuesday but couldn't be certain of the price until auditors had finished assessing liabilities and assets. He said he expected to pay between $11 and $12 million.
