Movies

Check theaters for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

Campus Theater:
846-6512

Arthur: Dudley Moore is hilarious as a millionaire playboy who falls head-over-heels in love with a shoplifter, played by Liza Minnelli. PG.

An American Werewolf in London: David "I'm a Pepper" Naughton stars as a man who encounters misfortune in the English countryside and turns into a werewolf. Full of fun gore. Midnight. R.

MSC Grove:
845-1515

Superman — The Movie: Superman (Christopher Reeve) is sent as a child to Earth, where he grows up and fights for "truth, justice and the American way." He must save the west coast from the evil ways of Lex Luthor (Gene Hackman) while trying to save his ladylove Lois Lane. PG.

Superman II: Continues the success of the movie that first paired up Christopher Reeve and Margot Kidder as the amazing Superman and the admiring Lois Lane. In the sequel, Superman continues his battle against evil and enjoys a romance with Lois as well. PG.

The Muppet Movie: Kermit the Frog heads for Hollywood, meeting Miss Piggy and a host of others along the way. Jim Henson, the creator of the Muppets, successfully brings the magic of the Muppets to the big screen. A delight for young and old alike. G.

Goldfinger: In addition to his hobby of painting women gold, Goldfinger also wants all of the gold in Fort Knox and Bond (Sean Connery) must stop him. The film that started the Bond craze. Unrated.

Return of The Pink Panther: Peter Sellers, as the untiring Inspector Clouseau, bumbles his way in search of the Pink Panther diamond, tripping over his own feet most of the way. G.

On The Waterfront: Elia Kazan won an Oscar for his direction and Marlon Brando won for his acting in the Best Picture of 1954. Brando's shattering performance is among the finest ever recorded on film. G.

Plitt Cinema I&II
846-6714

Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan: The second in the Star Trek movie series, supposedly better than the first, with a more action-packed plot. For Trekkies, consider this a sequel to one of the TV episodes — "Space Seed." PG.

Road Warriors: A very rich and complex film about these meanie guys who hog gas tanks after a nuclear holocaust. R.

Dawn of the Dead: Live in living breathing color, people eating people. This is an innovative, hilarious satire on the mental zeros who exist in contemporary American society. Extremely Gross. R.

Rocky Horror: The most bizarre treatment yet of the Frankenstein myth, complete with rock music, transvestism and kinky sex. Barry Bostwick and Susan Sarandon portray lost travelers who wander into Tim Curry's castle and experience a night to remember. Midnight Friday and Saturday. R.

Manor East
823-8300

Hanky Panky: In this comedy Gene Wilder is an innocent bystander turned victim and hero, and coincidentally so is Gilda Radner. Both are caught in a world of international intrigue, suspense and murder. PG.

Annie: Little Orphan Annie comes to life on the big screen in this musical comedy about an orphan's adventures as she tries to find a home. Carol Burnett, Albert Finney and Bernadette Peters star. PG.

Grease II: Further tales about the sock-hoppin' life of the '50s complete with hoop skirts, beboppin' songs and male hair-dos created with — grease. PG.

Post Oak Mall Cinema
764-0616

Poltergeist: A suburban neighborhood project is built over an ancient burial site. All of the ghosts from this graveyard eventually manifest themselves in one household. Probably where the old saying "more than three poltergeists is a crowd" came from. PG.

E.T.: An alien from a distant planet is stranded on earth by his mother ship and hidden by a small boy. They learn from each other how to grow up alone on their respective planets. PG.

Author, Author!: Al Pacino plays a writer whose wife leaves him with four kids. It's a ratrace at his house. PG.

Schulman Six
775-2468

Rocky III: Sylvester Stallone stars as everyone's favorite boxer, Rocky. In this feature, Rocky is rich and fights to stay that way, along with savoring his pride. Starring the same old characters from the past two Rocky films. PG.

Conan The Barbarian: A violent movie starring Arnold Schwarzenegger as the big meanie hulk and a voluptuous blond as his sidekick. R.

Bambi: The Walt Disney classic about an orphaned fawn who is adopted by other animals in the forest and learns he has to grow up fast. Thumper, the bunny, co-stars. G.

Fire Fox: It's Clint Eastwood against the Russians in this picture. He wants something and they've got it, so he must go in and get it. R.

On Golden Pond: Henry Fonda and Katharine Hepburn give Oscar-winning performances as an elderly couple coming to grips with old age. PG.

Raiders of the Lost Ark: Still hanging on or around or whatever. Until a sequel is created, it looks like we'll be stuck with this adventure-cliff-hanger movie forever. PG.

Skyway Twin Drive-In
822-3300

Arthur: Dudley Moore stars as a millionaire playboy whose life has been one long, usually drunken spree until he falls for a nobody (Liza Minnelli) from Queens. PG.

Road Warriors: Greedy people hog gas tanks after a nuclear holocaust. R.

Sharkey's Machine: Burt Reynolds plays a tough cop known as "The Ace." R.

Deathtrap: Michael Caine stars as a famous mystery writer who would literally kill for a hit in this screen version of Ira Levin's Broadway comedy thriller. PG.
