Ninth-inning rally brings 5-4 victory

Braves' comeback topples Astros

United Press International
The Atlanta Braves seem to be making come-from-behind victories a standard feature.

"We know we can win in any situation," Bob Horner said Wednesday night after his home run aided an improbable four-run comeback in the ninth inning to give the Braves a 5-4 victory over the Houston Astros.

"This team doesn't have anything to prove anymore about coming from behind," said Horner, who hit two homers in the game. "We've come from behind in the early innings and the late innings."

Pinch-hitter Biff Pocoroba capped the outburst with a two-run single, making it seven times the Braves have rallied to win in the ninth inning or later.

With Atlanta trailing 4-1, Dale Murphy and Horner led off the ninth with solo homers on consecutive pitches off loser Bob Knepper, 2-9.

Rufino Linares singled to left and Chris Chambliss had an infield single, knocking out Knepper in favor of Randy Moffitt. Bruce Benedict forced Linares while trying to sacrifice.

Brett Butler ran for Chambliss and Jerry Royster ran for Benedict. Pinch-hitter Larry Whisenton walked to load the bases before Pocoroba singled to right, giving Carlos Diaz the victory in his first major-league appearance.

In other NL games, Philadelphia downed St. Louis, 6-3, Pittsburgh beat Chicago, 7-3, Montreal defeated New York, 4-1, San Francisco edged Cincinnati, 7-6, in 12 innings, and Los Angeles split with San Diego, winning 5-1, then falling 6-4.

In the American League, it was Milwaukee 9, New York 7 in 12 innings; Seattle 10, Toronto 4; Detroit 12, Boston 3; Cleveland 9, Baltimore 0; Texas 5, California 3; Oakland 4, Kansas City 0; and Minnesota 4, Chicago 3.

PHILLIES 6, CARDINALS 3 — At Philadelphia, Larry Christenson, winless since May 15, stroked a two-run double to highlight a three-run second inning as the Phillies regained first place in the East Division.

PIRATES 7, CUBS 3 — At Chicago, Johnny Ray snapped a 2-2 tie with a fifth-inning single and pinch-hitter Willie Stargell hit a three-run homer, his first since Aug. 1980, to lead the Pirates.

EXPOS 4, METS 1 — At Montreal, Tim Wallach and Gary Carter hit solo homers in support of Bill Gullickson, 5-7, who struck out 10 batters in 7½ innings before Jeff Reardon earned his 13th save.

GIANTS 7, REDS 6 — At San Francisco, Johnnie LeMaster scored from third base on a wild pitch by Charlie Liebrandt with two out in the bottom of the 12th to lift the Giants.

DODGERS 5-4, PADRES 1-6 — At Los Angeles, Dusty Baker smashed a grand slam in the fifth to propel the Dodgers. In the nightcap, Terry Kennedy's pinch-hit, three-run homer in the fifth brought San Diego from behind to lead the Padres.

In the American League, the Detroit Tigers went out and produced 17 hits to snap a four-game losing streak with a 12-3 thumping of the Boston Red Sox.

Mike Ivie drove in four runs with a home run and a single, Alan Trammell hit a two-run homer and Larry Parrish and Tom Brookens collected three hits apiece in Detroit's most prolific offensive display of the season.

Dan Petry worked the first seven innings and gave up five hits to raise his record to 7-5.

"Lately we've been away from our game plan that's to score one run at a time," said Lynn Jones, who reached base in each of the three at-bats.

MARINERS 10, BLUE JAYS 4 — At Toronto, Richie Lirio and Al Cowens went 4-4 to pace a 16-hit attack that tied the Mariners to a straight victory.

INDIANS 9, ORIOLES 4 — At Baltimore, Von Hayes had a 12-hit attack with two singles and a run-scoring double to lead Cleveland.

TWINS 4, WHITE SOX 3-5 — At Minneapolis, Tim Lincecum and John Castino doubled in the fifth inning and Bobby Casanova hit a three-run home run to lead the Twins to a 3-5 win over the White Sox.

RANGERS 5, ANGELS 2 — At Arlington, Billy Sample had a two-out, three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth to give the Rangers the victory.

A's 4, ROYALS 0 — At Kansas City, Joe Rudi knocked two runs and Rickey Henderson scored two in support of Keough's first shutout of the season.

BREWERS 9, YANKEES 5-5 — At New York, Gorman Thomas had a fourth hit of the game, a run homer in the 12th to lift Milwaukee. Rolie Fingersh pitched a 5-5 game, who relieved in the seventh inning.

be is to play with more intensity," he said.

Slocum also stressed the need to eliminate the serious defensive mistakes and to prevent first downs after offensive novers.

He said it is important for players to enter a game realizing that turnovers are part of the game.

"Eventually, if you keep playing, then some of those breaks will come your way," Slocum said.

Slocum said during this part of the year, one of his duties is to categorize Texas A&M's opponents into particular styles of play.

"I see Houston and Arkansas being very similar in the styles of play, and you can throw Baylor in there a little bit too," Slocum said. "I'd say SMU and Texas Tech with the formations kind of fit together."

He said in preparing to face certain offense, he not only looks at offensive tendencies but also at why the team has those tendencies.

Stallings may coach USFL team

United Press International
DALLAS — Dallas Cowboys assistant coach Gene Stallings weighing an offer to become head coach of the Birmingham Stallions of the United States Football League now that the team has agreed to all his contract proposals.

Stallings, 47, returned to Dallas Wednesday night after meeting in Cincinnati with officials of the Birmingham franchise but refused to say whether he had accepted the job and a signing bonus topped $100,000.

"Let's just say that I had an enjoyable trip," he said. "Now I want to wait a couple of days and think things out before we make our decision."

However, the Dallas Times Herald reported today it had learned the team had agreed to all contract proposals by Stallings. His only reservation appears to be leaving the Cowboys with training camp two weeks away.

He has not yet signed a contract for an 11th season with Dallas.

If Stallings leaves, he will be the third Cowboys assistant coach to depart for a coaching position. Dan Riffe went to Denver and Mike Ditka to Chicago.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Stallings was head coach of Texas A&M from 1965-71, spent nine years on Bryant's staff at Alabama.
