Gray unsigned; two backs late

SAN ANGELO — Veteran Houston Oilers tackle Leon Gray failed to appear at the start of training camp and two other veterans were late in arriving, a team spokesman said.

The Oilers spokesman late Wednesday said defensive backs Vernon Perry and Greg Stemrick failed to show up before the 6 p.m. deadline set for the arrival of team veterans at Angelo State University but both called officials to say they would arrive late.

Late Wednesday night, Perry was driving to San Angelo from Jackson, Miss., while Stemrick was flying to camp from his home in Cincinnati, Ohio, the spokesman said.

The spokesman said officials were not surprised that Gray failed to show up because he has not renewed his contract with the team. He remains the only unsigned veteran.

Oilers General Manager Ladd Herzog said he last heard from Gray Sunday.

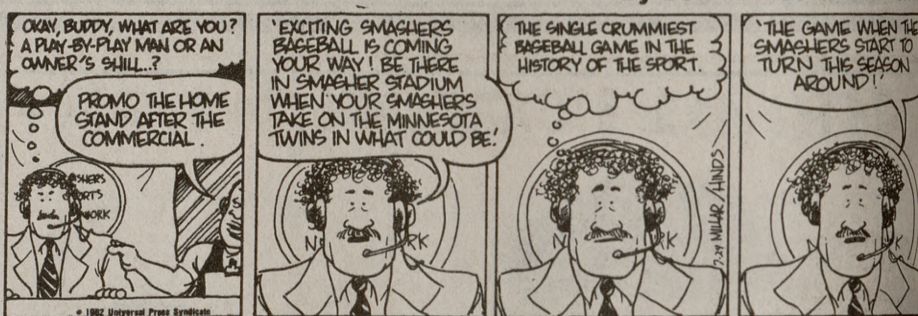

"He was supposed to call me back Sunday night, but he didn't. I haven't heard anything," Herzog said. He said Gray had not told anyone he would show up.

The 30-year-old old pro is known to be asking for a salary increase of more than 100 percent. The Oilers have offered him two contracts, one a one-year deal and the other for several seasons.

"Our offers are on the table," Herzog said. "We think we've made a fair proposal. But we can't officially do any negotiating so we're waiting to see if they'll accept one of our offers."

Niekro, Astros stifle last-place Cincinnati

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL HOUSTON — Houston manager Bill Virdon, who earlier this year blamed a slump by his Astros on poor pitching, now is singing the praises of his starting rotation.

The Astros, behind the complete-game pitching of Joe Niekro, beat the Cincinnati Reds 4-2 Wednesday. The win came a day after Nolan Ryan won his 200th career game with a 13-strikeout, 3-2 win over the Reds.

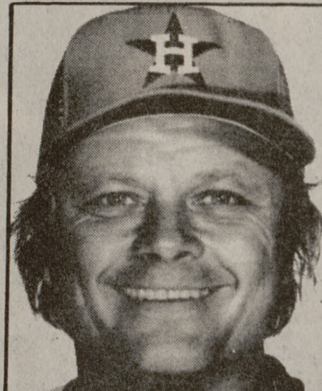

"When you get good-pitched games you've got a much better chance to win," Virdon said.

Art Howe's two-out, two-run double in the sixth gave the Astros a 3-2 lead. Houston added an insurance run in the seventh on an RBI single by Jose Cruz, who collected three hits in the game.

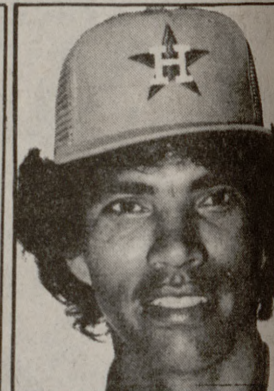

"We're happy to get two in a row," Niekro said. "I was glad to get the two-run lead. In this ball park it's so much more secure than one."

The win pushed Niekro's record to 10-7. The effort was his eighth complete game in his last 12 starts.

"I had a pretty good knuckler,

Joe Niekro

but it was hard to spot it," Niekro said. "I went more with the fast ball and slider once I got the lead."

The Reds scored a run in the first when Eddie Milner reached on a bunt single, moved to second on a single by Cesar Cedeno and scored on a single by Johnny Bench.

Houston tied it 1-1 in the fourth on back-to-back doubles by Cruz and Danny Heep.

Cincinnati scored in the fifth when Alex Trevino tripled and scored on a passed ball by L. Pujols.

In the sixth, Knight led off with a walk and Cruz singled before Howe's double.

Cincinnati manager Ron Nixon lamented his club's two consecutive close losses.

"We've played two pretty decent games the last two nights and lost," Nixon said. "I'm not real upset but I'm sure not happy either."

Nicklaus still has sights set on winning Canadian Open

UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL OAKVILLE, Ontario — The last time Jack Nicklaus played the Glen Abbey golf course, site of the Canadian Open, his verbal criticism stung his hosts as much as his driver and putter stung his PGA rivals.

The 7,060-yard, par-71 course was hit by a fungus infection that had partially destroyed some of the greens last year. Nicklaus, who designed Glen Abbey and takes pride in its condition, then came along and finished the job.

"The course stinks," he said. In the tournament itself, Nicklaus made a dramatic charge that fell one shot shy of Peter Oosterhuis and finished in second place. He enters this year's event still seeking the only major national championship that has eluded him.

The remarks Nicklaus made reverberated throughout the year. A number of changes were made in administrative personnel. The greenskeeper was among the first to go.

The Golden Bear made his inspection of the course he charted Wednesday, during the pro-am, and heaved a few sighs of relief.

"The course is as good as it can possibly be," he said. "By mid-September it will be perfect. But considering the grass kill from the winter and the spring it's in fine shape."

While the organizers worried about what Nicklaus might say about their course, they also were trying to keep count of the growing number of big-name players withdrawing.

Tournament director Jim Deeks said the draw was still above average compared to most of the PGA stops. But the 73-year-old Canadian Open is not used to being just above average.

"We still have a very good field, but we may have been a bit used to having the very best," he said.
