Aggie head swim coach Mel Nash gives some pointers to Craig Hottel during the Gulf Junior Olympic swim meet at Wofford Cain pool over the weekend. Hottel, an incoming freshman from Corpus Christi, won the 100- and 200-meter breast strokes with finishing times of 1:13.9 and 2:40.7, respectively. Nash, in his fourth year of coaching the Aggies, will travel with 20 members of the Aggie Swim Club to the Texas Senior Circuit Championships, which will be held in San Antonio Friday through Sunday.

Texas fires Zimmer; Brewers triumph 3-2

United Press International
Owner Eddie Chiles officially fired Don Zimmer as the Texas Rangers' manager after Wednesday night's 3-2 loss to the Milwaukee Brewers and named Darrell Johnson interim manager.

The post-game news conference contained some bitter moments. "Don can have any position he would like in our organization," Chiles said.

Zimmer said: "I'd like to manage Friday night (the Rangers' next game)."

Chiles said: "Well I think Don would actually like to relax and play golf on Friday. He has had a hard time the last few days."

Zimmer, without a smile, shot back: "No. I'd like to manage Friday night."

During the Brewer victory, catcher Ted Simmons lifted a sacrifice fly with one out in the eighth inning and Bob McClure and Rollie Fingers combined on a five-hitter to lead Milwaukee.

With the score tied 2-2, Paul Molitor led off the Milwaukee eighth with a single to left and went to second on a single by Robin Yount. Both runners moved up on a sacrifice and Molitor scored when Simmons followed with a sacrifice fly to left off loser Frank Tanana.

McClure, 8-3, struck out five and walked five. Fingers pitched the final two innings for his 22nd save.

In other games, Seattle stopped Minnesota, 6-2, Baltimore beat Chicago, 2-1, Cleveland defeated Kansas City, 4-2, Boston outscored Toronto, 9-7, New York nipped Detroit, 8-7, and California rocked Oakland, 13-1.

In the National League, it was: Philadelphia 4, Pittsburgh 3; Cardinals 7, Mets 5; Houston 4, Cincinnati 2; Atlanta 8, San Diego 6; Montreal 5, Chicago 3; and San Francisco 6, Los Angeles 2.

MARINERS 6, TWINS 2 — At Seattle, Richie Zisk belted a two-run homer and Al Cowens added a solo shot to lead the Mariners' Gaylord Perry to his 304th career victory.

ORIOLES 2, WHITE SOX 1 — At Baltimore, Eddie Murray and John Lowenstein delivered RBI singles in the sixth inning and Scott McGregor notched his 12th victory of the season, helping the Orioles to their seventh straight triumph.

INDIANS 4, ROYALS 2 — At Cleveland, Rick Sutcliffe tossed a three-hitter over 8 1/2 innings and rookie Carmelo Castillo belted his first major-league homer to pace the Indians.

RED SOX 9, BLUE JAYS 7 — At Boston, Dwight Evans and Carney Lansford each clouted three-run home runs in the fifth to help the Red Sox to a comeback victory.

YANKEES 8 TIGERS 7 — At New York, Bobby Murcer pinch-hit a three-run homer to cap a five-run seventh to power the Yankees.

ANGELS 13, A's 1 — At Anaheim, Calif., Don Baylor hit two home runs, drove in four runs and scored four more to back the six-hit pitching of Mike Witt and lead the Angels.

BRAVES 8, PADRES 6 — At Atlanta, Bob Horner hit two home runs and Phil Niekro earned his 250th career victory to lead the Braves. Niekro, 10-3, struck out three and walked two to improve his career record to 250-219.

PHILLIES 4, PIRATES 3 — At Pittsburgh, Mike Schmidt hit his 16th homer to lead the Phillies. Manny Trillo handled six chances without an error, giving him 87 consecutive games without an error to break the second basemen's major-league mark of 86 set by Baltimore's Rich Dauer in 1978.

CARDINALS 7, METS 5 — At St. Louis, Lonnie Smith tripped in the tying run and scored on a double by George Hendrick in the seventh inning to lead the Cardinals to their sixth straight win.

GIANTS 6, DODGERS 2 — At San Francisco, Fred Breining, making his first start in more than a year, combined with Gary Lavelle to pitch the Giants to victory.
