Young Doctors in Love: Michael McKean stars as a young intern who is determined to be the greatest surgeon in the world. There is just one problem — he is deathly afraid of using a scalpel. McKean cures his fear of the scalpel when he falls in love with and has to operate on a pretty young doctor who has a rare disease. Cameo appearances by soap opera stars. R.

Night Shift: Henry Winkler stars in this comedy about a man who works the graveyard shift in a morgue. He and a partner decide to add some spice to their lives by starting a pimp business and operating it out of the morgue. R.

Zombie: What better movie to show at midnight. Insomniacs should be out in full force. Midnight. Friday and Saturday. R.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: The most bizarre treatment yet of the Frankenstein myth, complete with rock music, transvestism and kinky sex. Barry Bostwick and Susan Sarandon portray lost travelers who wander into Tim Curry's castle and experience a night to remember. Midnight Friday and Saturday. R.

Manor East

Cheech and Chong's Things are Tough All Over: Tommy Chong plays a maniacal Arab with a nose only a camel could love. Cheech plays his brother whose head is made up to look like a billiard ball with a hair transplant. Expect the same laid-back dopers we're all used to. R.

Star Wars: Yes, the original Star Wars! That classic western movie with the galactic setting. Hans Solo is still mobile and Luke Skywalker is the typical space-age teenager turned hero. Rated PG.

An Officer and a Gentleman: Richard Gere stars as Zach Mayo, an officer candidate who learns what it takes to become a gentleman. Debra Winger is Paula, the young woman he meets and falls in love with. See review p. 8. R.

Poltergeist: A suburban neighborhood project is built over an ancient burial site. All of the ghosts from this graveyard eventually manifest themselves in one household. PG.

E.T.: An alien from a distant planet is stranded on earth by his mother ship and hidden by a small boy. They learn from each other how to grow up alone on their respective planets. PG.

The Pirate Movie: Christopher Atkins and Kristy McNichol sing, dance and fall in love in this rock 'n roll version of the operetta "The Pirates of Penzance." PG.

Friday the 13th, Part III: The body count continues as the killer in this 3-D film stalks his prey. Begins — when else? — Friday the 13th. R.

Schulman Six
775-2468

Secret of Nimh: A widowed mouse calls on some tough, smart rats to help save her family from exterminators in this animated feature. G.

Rocky III: Sylvester Stallone stars as everyone's favorite boxer, Rocky. In this feature, Rocky is rich and fights to stay that way, along with savoring his pride. Starring the same old characters from the past two Rocky films. PG.

The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas: First the Whorehouse papers, then the play and now the movie. All of course are about one of the greatest Texas traditions — The Chicken Ranch and its ultimate downfall. Starring Burt Reynolds and Dolly Parton. Woowee! See review p. 7. R.

Six Pac: Kenny Rogers quits singing long enough to star in this film. He plays a race-car driver who employs a kiddie pit crew and ends up the hero. PG.

The World According to Garp: Robin Williams stars as T. S. Garp, an unusual man who sees the world in a very unusual way. Based on the best-selling novel by John Irving. See review p. 8. R.

Zapped: High school hustler Willie Aames hopes to capitalize upon mild-mannered scientific pal Scott Biao's accidental discovery of telekinetic powers. R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

Forced Vengeance: Fiesty Chuch Norris Karate-chops his way through another Kung-Fu movie. R.

Tarzan, The Ape Man: Jungle rot. Bo Derek is a big 0, turned by her husband's leering camera from a sex goddess into a sex joke, a sort of Barbarella goes Native. Miles O'Keefe plays Tarzan whose only utterances are grunts. Bo's acting abilities are like her blouses — flimsy and strained. R.

Poltergeist: A suburban neighborhood project is built over an ancient burial site and all the ghosts end up in the houses. R.

Clash of the Titans: A grab bag of Greek gods, heroes and mythical creatures based loosely on the myth of Perseus (Harry Hamlin) and the deadly Medusa, a real looker who can turn living things to stone with a single glance. PG.
