Young Doctors in Love: Michael McKean stars as a young intern who is determined to be the greatest surgeon in the world. There is just one problem — he is deathly afraid of using a scalpel. McKean cures his fear of the scalpel when he falls in love with and has to operate on a pretty young doctor who has a rare disease. Cameo appearances by soap opera stars. R.

The Beastmaster: An epic adventure with a new kind of hero starring Mark Singer, Rip Torn and Tanya Roberts. Expect something similar to The Sword and the Sorcerer. PG.

Skyway Twin Drive-In

Night Shift: Henry Winkler stars in this comedy about a man who works the graveyard shift in a morgue. He and a partner decide to add some spice to their lives by starting a pimp business and operating it out of the morgue. R.

Tarzan, The Ape Man: Jungle rot. Bo Derek is a big 0, turned by her husband's leering camera from a sex goddess into a sex joke, a sort of Barbarella goes Native. Miles O'Keefe plays Tarzan whose only utterances are grunts. Bo's acting abilities are like her blouses — flimsy and strained. R.

Cheech and Chong's Things are Tough All Over: Tommy Chong plays a maniacal Arab with a nose only a camel could love. Cheech plays his brother whose head is made up to look like a billiard ball with a hair transplant. Expect the same laid-back dopers we're all used to. R.

Star Wars: Yes, the original Star Wars! That classic western movie with the galactic setting.

Hans Solo is still mobile and Luke Skywalker is the typical space-age teenager turned hero. Rated PG.

An Officer and a Gentleman: Richard Gere stars as Zach Mayo, an officer candidate who learns what it takes to become a gentleman. Debra Winger is Paula, the young woman he meets and falls in love with. R.

Post Oak Mall Cinema
