Trade abuses

United Press International
HOUSTON — In the present worldwide economic struggle, other countries are zealously protecting their interests, the chairman of U.S. Steel Corp. warned.
"We (in the United States) seem to mindlessly ignore that trend, while protectionism is not the answer, neither is ignoring trade abuses a solution," David Roderick said in a speech to the Forum Club Monday.
Roderick said that when a multilateral trading system becomes the vehicle for solving domestic political and social issues, the system breaks down.

Fireman dies

SAN ANTONIO — An Amarillo fireman who received extensive burns in an apartment house fire last month has died at Brooke Army Medical Hospital, officials said.
Kenneth Caldwell, 29, a two-year veteran of the Amarillo Fire Department, died in the Army hospital's burn unit Monday after complications from his burns caused kidney failure late Sunday.

Fire department officials said Caldwell was hit by a superoxygenated fireball while inspecting the inside of an apartment building destroyed in the July 18 fire.

Scouts' injuries

AMARILLO — An assistant scoutmaster and a 14-year-old member of his Ottawa, Kan., Boy Scout troop remained in critical condition with injuries suffered nearly two weeks ago in a mini-bus accident in Oklahoma.
Don Sims, 14, has been in a coma since the Aug. 4 accident and is undergoing treatment for head and internal injuries at Northwest Texas Hospital.
Authorities say the two were among six injured when assistant scoutmaster Richard A. Stephenson, 25, apparently fell asleep at the wheel of a mini-bus on U.S. 64 near Boise City, Okla. Stephenson was in critical but stable condition at St. Anthony's Hospital.

Richard Dean Clark, 37, Monday entered the plea on attempted capital murder charges that had been filed against him. He and his wife Linda, 32, still face federal bank robbery charges.
Policeman Enrique Garcia was shot in a parking lot outside the Nueces National Bank when he tried to arrest Clark for robbery April 1. Clark was also shot twice in the melee.

Murder plea

CORPUS CHRISTI — A man accused of pumping six bullets into a policeman who tried to arrest him for bank robbery has pleaded guilty in exchange for a life sentence.

Richard Dean Clark, 37, Monday entered the plea on attempted capital murder charges that had been filed against him. He and his wife Linda, 32, still face federal bank robbery charges.

Policeman Enrique Garcia was shot in a parking lot outside the Nueces National Bank when he tried to arrest Clark for robbery April 1. Clark was also shot twice in the melee.

Two slain

MONAHANS — Two men were shot to death in a bar just outside the city limits in what police said was the result of an on-going feud.

Sal Navarrete, 29, and Moises Ray Marques, 35, both of Monahans, were slain by a lone gunman with a .22 caliber rifle in the El Matador Lounge at about 11 p.m. Sunday, police said.

The Ward County Sheriff's Department issued a murder warrant for a suspect police said was involved in an on-going feud with the two victims.

Man crushed

BROWNWOOD — A rolling machine went out of control and crushed over an embankment, crushing to death a highway construction employee, authorities said.
