Movies

Check theaters for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

Campus Theater:
846-6512

Star Trek II: The Wrath of Khan: The second in the Star Trek movie series, supposedly better than the first, with a more action-packed plot. For Trekkies, consider this a sequel to one of the TV episodes — "Space Seed." PG.

MSC Grove:
845-1515

We've Never Been Licked:

An age-old corny film about Aggie in the good old days. Now it's more of an Aggie cult film. Saturday at 8:45 p.m.

Animal House: National Lampoon presents an uproarious satire on fraternity life. Set on the campus of a small private college, the picture takes us into two fraternity houses: the groomed, sophisticated Omegas and the Delta house, which is a collection of misfits and rulebreakers led by John Belushi as Bluto. Free admission. Midnight Saturday.

Rudder Theater

Fame: Tracing a group of students at New York's celebrated Performing Arts High School, "Fame" highlights the ambition and crazy energy that spurs these creative people on. R. Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Clash of the Titans: Perseus, son of Zeus, must brave the wrath of Venus as he strives to save Andromeda from the terrible Kraaken. Along the way, he must deal with a series of the vile creatures and unusual allies. R. Thursday at 7:30 and 9:45.

Manor East
823-8300

Cheech and Chong's Things are Tough All Over: Tommy Chong plays a maniacal Arab with a nose only a camel could love. Cheech plays his brother whose head is made up to look like a billiard ball with a hair transplant. Expect the same laid-back dopers we're all used to. R.

Star Wars: Yes, the original Star Wars! That classic western movie with the galactic setting. Hans Solo is still mobile and Luke Skywalker is the typical space-age teenager turned hero. Rated PG.

An Officer and a Gentleman: Richard Gere stars as Zach Mayo, an officer candidate who learns what it takes to become a gentleman. Debra Winger is Paula, the young woman he meets and falls in love with. R.

Post Oak Mall Cinema
764-0616

The Soldier: Ken Wahl plays a kind of free-lance adventurer who stands before terrorists and a plot that could touch off World War III. R.

E.T.: An alien from a distant planet is stranded on earth by his mother ship and hidden by a small boy. They learn from each other how to grow up alone on their respective planets. PG.

Friday the 13th, Part III: The body count continues as the killer, wearing a spooky hockey mask in this 3-D film, stalks his prey. R.

Schulman Six
775-2468

Secret of NIMH: A widowed mouse calls on some tough, smart rats to help save her family from exterminators in this animated feature. G.

Rocky III: Sylvester Stallone stars as everyone's favorite boxer, Rocky. In this feature, Rocky is rich and fights to stay that way, along with savoring his pride. Starring the same old characters from the past two Rocky films. PG.

The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas: First the Whorehouse papers, then the play and now the movie. All of course are about one of the greatest Texas traditions — The Chicken Ranch and its ultimate downfall. Starring Burt Reynolds and Dolly Parton. Woowee! R.

Six Pac: Kenny Rogers quits singing long enough to star in this film. He plays a race-car driver who employs a kiddie pit crew and ends up the hero. PG.

The World According to Garp: Robin Williams stars as T. S. Garp, an unusual man who sees the world in a very unusual way. Based on the best-selling novel by John Irving. R.

Summer Lovers: Another teen sex around the world movie. This time a romantic triangle develops among three young Americans on holiday in the Greek islands. R.

Plitt Cinema I&II
846-6714

Young Doctors in Love: Michael McKean stars as a young intern who is determined to be the greatest surgeon in the world. There is just one problem — he is deathly afraid of using a scalpel. McKean cures his fear of the scalpel when he falls in love with and has to operate on a pretty young doctor who has a rare disease. Cameo appearances by soap opera stars. R.

The Beastmaster: An epic adventure with a new kind of hero starring Mark Singer, Rip Torn and Tanya Roberts. Expect something similar to The Sword and the Sorcerer. PG.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: The most bizarre treatment yet of the Frankenstein myth, complete with rock music, transvestism and kinky sex. Barry Bostwick and Susan Sarandon portray lost travelers who wander into Tim Curry's castle and experience a night to remember. Midnight Friday and Saturday. R.

Richard Pryor Live on Sunset Strip: Richard gives an 82-minute routine on being rich, marriage, going back to Africa and his close encounter with a drug-related death and makes it funny. R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In
822-3300

Cannonball Run: Burt Reynolds stars in this farce about cross-country all-star car race. At least the cast members, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis, Roger Moore, Mel Tillis, Farrah Fawcett and others, seem to enjoy themselves. PG.

The Pirate Movie: Christopher Atkins and Kristy McNichol sing, dance and fall in love in this rock 'n roll version of the operetta "The Pirates of Penzance." PG.

Zapped: High school hustler Willie Aames hopes to capitalize upon mild-mannered scientific pal Scott Baio's accidental discovery of telekinetic powers. R.

Nine to Five: The hilarious comedy team of Jane Fonda, Lily Tomlin and Dolly Parton appear as abused and harassed secretaries.

Music

Backstage: Thursday listen to Pyewackett play old British folk songs with old-timey instruments. Cover charge is $1.50.

Lakeview: There will be no more dancing on Thursday night until Sept. 2. Friday listen to rock 'n roll by Stillfinger, a Bryan-based band. Cover is $3 and all unescorted ladies get in for $1. It's country and western music by American Sunrise on Saturday — cover charge is $3.
