Freshmen honored by Chamber members

Two Texas A&M freshmen will be honored today as representatives of the incoming freshman class and the returning student body by the Bryan/College Station Chamber of Commerce and the mayor's office of each city. Cathryn Hughes of Abilene, and Frank Abbott of Longview, will be honored at noon with a luncheon at Briarcrest Country Club.

The freshmen were chosen by the Student Government at the request of the Chamber of Commerce, said Dr. Malon Southerland, chairman of the University Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

"This is the business community's way of saying welcome and thanks to the students of Texas A&M," he said.
