Welsh goes distance to defeat Astros 4-2

United Press International
HOUSTON — San Diego pitcher Chris Welsh was not expected to start against the Houston Astros, much less pitch a complete game.

But Welsh, called upon to take the place of flu-ridden John Montefusco, tossed a four-hitter Monday to lead the Padres to a 4-2 victory over the Astros.

"When I pitch, I need everybody out there on defense to do his job, and they did their job superbly tonight," said Welsh, who walked one and struck out three to pick up his eighth victory of the season against five defeats.

"Welsh earned another start for us at home in San Diego this Saturday," said manager Dick Williams. "He did a fine job and we need a good lefthanded starter at this point of the season."

In addition to pitching the entire game, Welsh singled and drove in a run for the Padres.

"No, I'm not suprised at all," said Williams when asked about Welsh's hitting. "He's hitting .270 and has 11 RBI for us this year. We have nine hitters in our lineup."

Welsh only allowed one baserunner after the fifth — catcher Alan Ashby.

"Ashby is a good pitcher. He mixed his speeds well and he seemed to put the ball where he wanted it," said Williams. "You singled and scored on a home run behind the division leader Atlanta Braves in the National League West."

The Padres scored a second off loser Verminor 7-12. With one out Joe Lefebvre singled and scored on a double by Broderick Perkins.

Houston took a 2-1 lead in the fourth on Ashby's single following a single by Jose Cruz, but the Padres tied the score in the fifth when Welsh singled and scored on a two-out triple to score.

Rangers sweep Twins, avoid last-place finish

United Press International
ARLINGTON — So far, the Texas Rangers have been mired in sixth place in the American League West, but a double-header victory saved them the embarrassment of finishing in last place behind the Minnesota Twins.

The Rangers dropped the Twins 4-2 in the first game and came back to take an 11-7 victory in the nightcap, which moved them seven games ahead of Minnesota.

Billy Sample's two-run homer in the seventh inning snapped a 2-2 tie in the first game and Jim Sundberg crushed a three-run homer that highlighted a seven-run fourth inning in the second game.

"For the guys, it's a question of pride. As for myself, it does not mean as much as answering the questions that need to be answered," said Texas manager Darrell Rohnson.

"The important thing is we want to find guys who can play from among the Rams' jocks (Rich Kauffman and Tom Brunansky farm club)."

Among those brought over from Chicago, Putnam went 3-for-4 and Chicago in two runs with a first-inning double in the nightcap. Atlanta. Bogener also was 3-for-4. The drove in a pair of runs of hundred two-run single in the second game's fourth inning. Moves. Other four year old Pete O'Brien contributed two runs. Included Coleman opportunity to show what he can do," O'Brien said. "As long as I'm staying ahead of the Texas team, I don't think I'm worried about that as much as the other guys are trying to catch Oakland and Oakland is in fifth place now by games ahead of Texas."

Sample slammed his linebacker homer of the year in the Miami game, off loser Brad Haven. Henry Dent doubled and moved to third on a wild pitch.

Tom Brunansky's 17th homer of the year cut the Rangers' lead to 4-3 and chased Mike Smithson, 2-1, in the eighth. Paul Mirabella pitched to one batter then was replaced by Danny Darwin, who finished up to earn his seventh start.

Texas jumped on starter loser Don Cooper, 0-1, in the first inning of the nightcap, scoring four runs after two out. Minnesota came back in the second on a two-out triple to score off Charlie Hough, 13-11.
