Pearson's plans void of surprise

by Beverly Hamilton

Battalion Staff
Student Body President Pat Pearson announced his legislative plans for 1982-83 during the Texas A&M Student Government meeting Wednesday.

Pearson said he would like the Senate to establish a central quiz file for the University and an academic referral service in which students would serve as advisers to their peers prior to pre-registration.

He also indicated that the Senate constitution would be revised and that campus speaker policies, election regulations and the parking situation would be reviewed.

Six Senate seats were vacated, Brian Terrell, speaker of the Senate, announced. Positions vacated were the College of Agriculture junior representative, the Krueger/Mosher representative, the off-campus Ward I representative and three representatives from off-campus Ward II.

Applications for the vacant positions will be accepted by Student Government from today through Wednesday.

Senators will elect a new vice president for external affairs to replace Jay Holland who vacated his position, Terrell said.

The election will be held during the next Senate meeting.

Jolie Mailhos, vice president for academic affairs, said

Charles McCandless reviewed the Senate's request for ending common night exams. McCandless, interim vice president for academic affairs, said he would reconsider the request after the fall semester if students are still dissatisfied with exam times.

The Senate approved a budget of $40,621 for the 1982-83 school year — a 1.8 percent increase over last year's budget.

In addition, senators were urged to record student complaints on a student opinion survey so the Senate can discuss and solve current campus problems.

The student services committee held a time awareness bill, university committee bill, university drive parking bill and academic visibility bill in committee.

In addition, Greg Bates, vice-president for rules and regulations, said reapportionment of the Senate and the data processing directorship bill would be discussed during a committee meeting Tuesday.

The senate also approved filing election dates for freshman senator elections. Filing for freshman positions will be from 9 a.m. Sept. 20 through 6 p.m. Sept. 24. Elections will be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Oct. 6. If necessary, a run-off election will be on Oct. 12.

Warren G. Harding, former state treasurer, attended the meeting.
