

photo by C. Michel Chang

Dan Carter, strong-side linebacker for UT-Arlington, hits Texas A&M tailback Johnny Hector from the left side in the Aggies' 61-22 victory Saturday. This play took place during the second quarter, but Hector left the game in the third quarter as a result of a slight shoulder separation. Hector will be out of action for two or three weeks, with Thomas Sanders starting in his place.

Rifle team earns top finish in Fort Worth

The Texas A&M rifle team placed first in the state air rifle championships, held this weekend at TCU in Fort Worth.

The team which finished No. 1 in the state, including Jerrold Scharninghausen, Todd Woodard, Glenn Park and Kurt Nauck, totaled 2,142 points out of a possible 2,400. The University of Texas placed second with 2,068 points and the Aggies' second team placed third in the competition with 1,961 points.

John Berry, Bob Crowe, Chris Fedun and Leslie Klinksiek made up Texas A&M's second team.

Individually, Ben Potter placed first in the open expert category. Potter, although on the Texas A&M team, competed unattached throughout the weekend events.

Park placed first in the collegiate expert category and Jerrold Scharninghausen finished first in the collegiate sharpshooter category.

The Aggies will participate in a collegiate match at UT Sunday. The event will feature three-position small-bore and air rifle competition.

Sherrill: Aggies to face strong QB in Dunigan

by Frank L. Christlieb

Sports Editor

Billy Brewer calls Texas A&M quarterback Gary Kubiak a "trigger man."

Jackie Sherrill calls Louisiana Tech quarterback Matt Dunigan a Doug Flutie-type with a strong arm.

Descriptions aside, the two players have one common characteristic: they're both fundamentally sound quarterbacks with exceptional skills.

Brewer and his team remember Kubiak's 7-of-14, 245-yard performance of last season when the two teams met in Kyle Field. Likewise, the Aggies recall clearly Dunigan's 19 completions in 38 attempts for 263 yards.

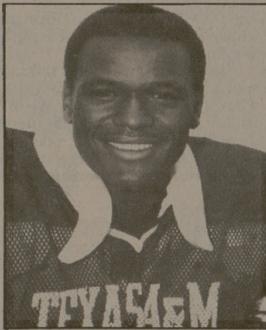

The two quarterbacks and their teammates meet again in Kyle Field for a 1982 rematch Saturday at 6 p.m. And if early-season numbers are any indication of their passing prowess, this year's version of the series may be a repeat performance.

During his weekly press conference Monday in Cain Hall, Sherrill compared Dunigan to Flutie, the Boston College quarterback who passed for 346 yards and three touchdowns in the Aggies' season-opening loss Sept. 4.

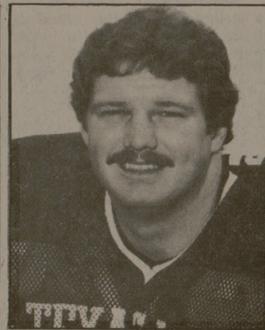

Through two Louisiana Tech victories this season, the 5-11, 181-pound senior has completed 23 of 38 passes for 382 yards and three touchdowns. In the Bulldogs' 49-12 victory over Eastern Michigan, Dunigan was 11 for 13 for 205 yards and two touchdowns.

Kubiak has connected on 45 of 79 passes for 493 yards and four touchdowns, a 247-yard average. He has thrown two interceptions.

"Dunigan has thrown the ball very well," Sherrill said. "Flutie

Jeff Fuller named Aggies' defensive player of week

Offensive lineman Bryan Dausin tops in UTA game and Dunigan are about the same. They both have a strong arm, and Dunigan has started for three years.

Brewer, in his third year coaching at Louisiana Tech, said Kubiak was the key to the Aggies' season.

"Everything starts with the trigger man," he said, "and with A&M, that's their quarterback — Kubiak."

"A&M has quality people — the more that come, the bigger they get. They've got good skill folks, and they're an experienced football team with a lot of talent."

Aggie tailback Johnny Hector, injured in the third quarter of the UT-Arlington game, was named offensive player of the week by the coaching staff. Hector rushed for 92 yards to give him 144 in two games, but he will be out for two or three weeks after separating his left shoulder.

Other players recognized for their performances against the Movin' Mavs were offensive lineman Bryan Dausin, defensive tackle Fred Caldwell, strong safety Billy Cannon, and special teams members David Hardy and Burnis Simon.

Sherrill said the Aggie defense, which has allowed an average of 413 yards during the first two games, played with intensity and emotion against the Movin' Mavs.

But, he said: "We probably played our first-team defense too long."

Sherrill credited running backs Thomas Sanders and Mike Marshall for their efforts in reserve roles. Marshall, a senior, rushed for 48 yards and caught two passes for 14 yards, and Sanders carried eight times for 42 yards.

Fullback Earnest Jackson, who suffered detached knee ligaments against Boston College, should be out of his cast by the end of this week or the start of next week, Sherrill said. Freshman George Smith should start again at the fullback slot and Sanders will probably open at tailback.

Sherrill said both Jackson and Hector should return to action no later than the Texas A&M-Houston game Oct. 9.

Hardy, who kicked four field goals against UT-Arlington, also received praise from Sherrill.

"Hardy played extremely well," he said. "I was very impressed with him. He has a great leg and I think he'll do great things for us. Under the right conditions, he can kick the 65- and 68-yarder."

Sherrill said the Aggies will use three down linemen on defense against Louisiana Tech, with Keith Guthrie, Fred Caldwell and Ray Childress starting on the defensive front.

"When you face teams that pass as much as our opponents have and will Saturday night," he said, "you've got to keep fresh people in there rushing the passer. We'll have three tackles, but it'll still be a four-man line."

Sherrill said the move of Jeff Fuller to the weak-side linebacker slot and Billy Cannon to strong safety bolstered the defensive unit. Fuller had 14 tackles, including 12 unassisted, and Cannon had seven tackles.

"We're trying to get an opportunity to work with some things, and with the week off, I think we did the right things with Fuller and Cannon," Sherrill said. "I think that'll help our game tremendously."

"I was encouraged with our defensive team. Looking at the films, we saw that they were around the football a lot."

The offensive line, led by Dausin, has improved since the Boston College game, Sherrill said.

"If we protect Gary (Kubiak) as well as we protected him Saturday night, he'll be able to do a lot of things," he said.

Texas A&M University Arts Exhibits cordially invites you and your friends to attend the special lecture

BAROQUE LANDSCAPE AND STILL LIFE IN THE BLAFFER COLLECTION

presented by

DR. SCOTT A. SULLIVAN

Professor of Art, North Texas State University in conjunction with the exhibition

A GOLDEN AGE OF PAINTING

from the collection of the Sarah Campbell Blaffer Foundation

J. Earl Rudder Forum

7:30 p.m., Wednesday, September 22, 1982

Admission free

A reception for Dr. Sullivan will be held in the Rudder Exhibit Hall after the lecture.

Your Choice $1.59

There's No Comparison!

Fresh,
Crisp &
Meal-Sized

Served To Go

Supreme Salads

Save UP TO 60¢

Choice of Supreme Salad

TACO  CHEF  CHICKEN

With Lots of Extras Like Tender Ham & Turkey... Swiss & Cheddar Cheese... Chunky Chicken Salad. Garnished with Egg Slices & Tomato. And a Spicy Taco Salad Served with Tortilla Chips.

Valid at:

Good Thru:

3444-7UNIV

Your Choice
$1.59

Present coupon when ordering.

One coupon per customer. Valid only for in-store use. Not valid for other offers. Price shown may include tax. ©1982 Jack in the Box.

JACK IN THE BOX