Aggies

Hector and Jackson should be able to play against the Cougars. Marshall and Smith will start, but it's probable that both Jackson and Hector will see limited action.

So the Aggies, short-handed in the running back department, may have to once again rely on the most accurate arm in the SWC. Through four games, Kubiak has passed for 1,002 yards and eight touchdowns.

"It's hard to say what'll happen Saturday," Kubiak said. "I'd say if (Hector and Jackson) don't play, we may pass a lot more and if they do, then we might not have to pass as much."

"I feel they'll be in the game, but as for what happens when they hop in there, I don't know. How they perform will definitely be the key. We sure don't want to take any chances and get them hurt, because we'll need them during the rest of the season."

The Cougars' Wilson has completed 56 percent of his passes for 508 yards and one touchdown. Roberson, Wilson's top receiver, caught nine passes for 119 yards against Baylor.

Fullback Dwyane Love has rushed for 385 yards and four touchdowns, including a 192-yard performance in the Cougs' lone victory—a 48-3 smashing of Lamar. Backfield mate Dallas Wiggins has compiled 350 yards and has scored four touchdowns. Wiggins rushed for 124 yards and two touchdowns against the Bears.

As a team, Texas A&M has rushed for 751 yards, with Marshall's 163 leading the way. As a starting twosome, Houston's Love and Wiggins have gained 735 of the Cougars' 1,074 yards on the ground.

Houston sophomore defensive end James Holmes, who started his first game against the Bears, said the Cougars need to forget their slow start last weekend. The Cougars trailed 21-7 at halftime after falling behind 21-0.

"We must keep climbing the ladder, taking one game at a time," he said. "Our concentration can only be on the Aggies."

Kubiak said the Cougars, as always, will be tough on their home turf.

"They're playing well," he said. "They're on a roll right now and their defense played really well in the second half against Baylor last week. They've got a lot of talent on defense, and they're going to be, without a doubt, the toughest defense we've faced all year."

Aggie linebacker Bullitt, who has 20 tackles for the season, said the Cougars' option-based offense has excellent scoring potential. "They've got a good offensive line and they're a strong option team," he said. "They throw a lot of short, quick passes to an explosive offense and score points."

Be on the fifty yard line...
