Aggies

Hector and Jackson should be able to play against the Cougars. Marshall and Smith will start, but it's probable that both Jackson and Hector will see limited action.

So the Aggies, short-handed in the running back department, may have to once again rely on the most accurate arm in the SWC. Through four games, Kubiak has passed for 1,002 yards and eight touchdowns. "It's hard to say what'll happen Saturday," Kubiak said. "I'd say if (Hector and Jackson) don't play, we may pass a lot more and if they do, then we might not have to pass as much.

"I feel they'll be in the game, Wiggins has compiled 350 yards and as for what happens when and has scored four touchdowns. We must keep climbing the the Cougars' option-based offense has excellent scoring line and they're a strong option offense. They've got a good offensive of short, quick passes and an explosive offense.

Let's go to the fair

More than three million people are expected to visit the 17-day-long State Fair of Texas, which opens its gates today in Dallas.

For the true Texan, nine days of championship rodeo and 30 different breeds of livestock for show and sale will be featured.

For others, continuous free entertainment, 300 exhibits, 25 contests, 60 rides and numerous skill games and souvenir stands are provided.

Daily events will include multiple performances of an outdoor ice show, a three-ring circus, a full-scale parade and a fireworks show each evening.

Fun and food are primary ingredients for a fair and visitors will be able to sample a varied menu at the more than 200 food booths and restaurants.

Admission is $3 for adults and $1 for children ages five to 11. Children under five are admitted free. Senior citizens are admitted free every Tuesday.

Fair hours are from 7 a.m. until midnight.

Taylor's at Backstage

Eric Taylor, a singer-songwriter, will be performing at Backstage tonight and Saturday from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

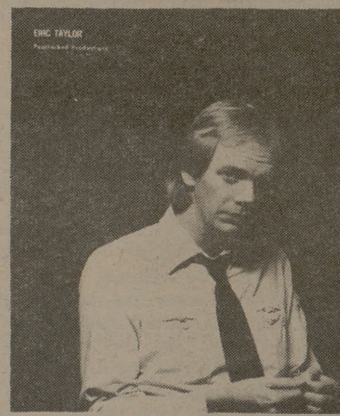

The 33-year-old musician, known for his story-telling ballads and folksongs, says he considers himself a writer first and a performer second.

During the last 10 years, Taylor has made his way in the Houston music community by writing frequently complicated songs (mostly about himself, his friends and his acquaintances) and playing the local folk clubs.

Taylor has recorded one album, Shameless Love, which includes 10 of his best songs.

His last appearance at Texas A&M was a performance in the Basement Coffeehouse over a year ago.

Cover charge is $2.50.

"Life with Father"

"Life with Father," StageCenter's season opener, continues this weekend with performances tonight and Saturday at 8 p.m.

The classic comedy depicts the conflict between a well-meaning but domineering father and his wife, who is determined to have him baptized.

Jim Wilson stars as Father and Sharon Barrow plays his wife, Vinnie.

Ticket prices are $4 for adults, $3 for senior citizens and $2.50 for children. For ticket information, call 846-4554.

The StageCenter theater is at 204 W. Villa Maria near College Avenue in Bryan.

StageCenter, a community acting group in its 17th season, performs throughout the year.

Guide to New York

Go back in time to the 1930s with The WPA Guide to New York City: The Federal Writers' Project Guide to 1930s New York.

This tour guide for time travelers offers New York lovers, and thirties buffs a fascinating look at life as it was lived in the days when a ride on the subway cost a nickel and the Yankees were on their way to winning four World Series in a row.

The WPA Guide is a record of the dreams, promises and disappointments that make the Big Apple what it is.

The guide is available in hardback for $20 and in paperback for $8.95.

Band carnival

The College Station Band Boosters will host their annual Band Carnival Saturday from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at Oakwood Middle School on Holik Street.

Music will be provided throughout the evening by the middle school, junior high and high school bands.

Attractions at this year's carnival will include a cake walk and spook house, along with such games of skill as a balloon shave, basketball shoot, darts, penny pitch and ping pong toss.

Hand-crafted objects including Christmas items, home baked goods, plants and odds 'n ends will be on sale in the country store.

The sweet shop will sell soft drinks, snow cones, popcorn and desserts.

Homemade chili, nachos, frito pies and hotdogs will be available from the snack bar in the cafeteria.

Drawings for prizes donated by area merchants will be made throughout the evening.

Money raised from the carnival is used to fund junior high and senior high band projects and trips.

The funds are also used to purchase equipment for the bands and to provide scholarships to band camp.
