Aggies spike Raiders

Extra practice paid off for the Texas A&M women's volleyball team Wednesday night as the Aggie Ladies ripped Texas Tech with a three game sweep in G. Rollie White Coliseum.

Led by freshman Sherri Brinkman, the Aggie Ladies solidified their Southwest Conference lead by defeating the Raiders, 15-8, 15-1, 15-6, to extend their record to 20-4 on the season and 5-0 in conference action.

Texas A&M coach Terry Condon said the Aggies are at a point in the season where they cannot afford to take any of their SWC opponents lightly.

"Anyone can win on any given night," Condon said, echoing her comments after Monday's victory over Rice.

The 18th-ranked Aggie Ladies will host Southern Illinois Friday at 7:30 p.m. in the A&M Consolidated High School gym.

Emotions play key role in Bryan-Temple battle

by John P. Lopez

Battalion Staff

Over the past eight years, the Bryan High football team has been one of the most successful and winningest squads in Texas. But you wouldn't know it if you looked at the Vikings' trophy case.

Bryan has nary a district title to show for its success.

The major cause of the Vikings' shattered championship hopes lies 100 miles west of Bryan in the form of the Temple Wildcats. Temple's dominance is the only reason the Vikings are not mentioned in the same breath as such perennial schoolboy powerhouses as Odessa Permian, Plano, Conroe, San Antonio Churchill, Houston Memorial and Temple.

Over the past two years Bryan has an overall record of 18-2 — with its only losses coming at the hands of Temple. To say the Wildcats have been the Vikings' achilles heel would be an understatement, but things could change Friday night at Kyle Field when the two teams tangle for the district lead.

Bryan Head Coach Merrill Green said that in order to defeat the Wildcats, his team will have to overcome the psychological edge Temple has.

"It's going to take more than just your ordinary effort if we want to beat them," Green said. "It boils down to us overcoming their assurance that they're going to win the ball game. And that's a lot to overcome."

"When you go into a ball game hoping and thinking you're going to win it's not quite the same as going into a ball game knowing you're going to win. And that's exactly the attitude that Temple has. We're going to have to change that Friday night."

Senior running back Rod Bernstine agreed with Green.

"None of the players have ever been on a team that has beaten Temple," Bernstine said. "So we're all pretty hungry for it. Nobody on this team likes Temple. I think we're going to go out ready to hit them as soon as the game starts."

Green said the talent the Vikings possess this year gives Bryan a better chance of defeating the Wildcats Friday than it ever has had in the past.

"Overall, this team is a little stronger than the teams that have lost to Temple in the past because we have a stronger line both offensively and defensively," he said. "And we have a little more depth in some areas."

The emotional aspect of a big game is also a factor, said, since high emotions times works as a disaster for a team.

"Interestingly enough now we're trying to let emotions down a little. We want them (the players) too excited too quick tension will begin to build get into the latter part of the week," he said. "We hype pretty low-key but think all the excitement, campus and around town. Our job is to be caught up in the excitement cause when you do, you think that you're better than you really are."

"But overall I think we've turned off once before up pretty well against the modern-day ballplayers sound football and let the tions take care of themselves observation is that the whole life," bubbled.

game. Two years ago we punt blocked and got a yard punt which hurt us a year, Temple just had a kicking game than we did kicked a field goal right the half that proved to be a deciding factor."

Viking quarterback Flowers also said he is about the upcoming game he added that should be the season is far from over.

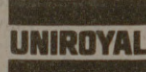

"All year long the people have been talking is Temple, but we still win two games after he said. "But we do know them if we want to get playoffs. Everybody has a tative attitude on the know we can win."

Bernstine agreed: "It's ably not a rivalry for the more since they've beaten last eight years, but it's It's always the biggest of the year. All we want to out and play a good game win it this time."
