Penn State faces tough road test

United Press International
NEW YORK — Just the mention of Penn State is enough to drive most West Virginia football fans deeper into the hills.

And with good reason, too. After a 14-14 tie with the Nittany Lions in 1958, West Virginia has played Penn State each year since and failed to win.

Penn State, ranked No. 8, travels to Morgantown, W. Va., to tackle the No. 11 Mountaineers on Saturday.

In most cases, the Mountaineers haven't even come close to beating Penn State, 5-1, which leads the series that began in 1904, 39-7-2.

"Any time you play Penn State you know you're in for a tough football game," says West Virginia Coach Don Nehlen. "They've got a great team again this year and we're going to have to play a heck of a football game to come out on top."

Penn State Coach Joe Paterno: "West Virginia is as good an overall football team as we've played this year. They certainly are the best defensive team we've played."

Here are the selections:
EAST — Pittsburgh 31, Syracuse 13 — Pitt quarterback Dan Marino is back on target.

West Virginia 17, Penn State 14 — WVU defense stifles "Air Paterno."

Others: Boston College 35, Army 10; Holy Cross 21, Brown 17; Columbia 21, Bucknell 28; Dartmouth 22, Cornell 20; Yale 24, Pennsylvania 23; Princeton 31, Harvard 24; Rutgers 17, Colgate 14.

SOUTH — Alabama 49, Cincinnati 0 — You have to feel sorry for the team that plays a recently defeated Alabama team.

Clemson 27, North Carolina State 10 — Defending national champions have shown they can win without injured quarterback Homer Jordan.

Georgia 35, Kentucky 13 — Another week, another victory for Georgia.

Louisiana State 34, South Carolina 20 — LSU remains unbeaten.

MIDWEST — Nebraska 27, Missouri 21 — Nebraska gets a scare.

Michigan 42, Northwestern 7 — Northwestern has improved, but not that much.

SOUTHWEST — Houston 24, Arkansas 23 — Hogs too sloppy in this one.

Oklahoma 31, Oklahoma State 14 — Diverse running gives Oklahoma the edge over the Cowboys and Ernest Anderson, the nation's leading rusher.

Texas 26, Southern Methodist 24 — Texas hands SMU its first loss.

Others: Texas A&M 31, Rice 17; Baylor 24, Texas Christian 19; Air Force 31, Texas El Paso 14.

WEST — Washington 27, Texas Tech 13 — A healthy Jacques Robinson gives Washington another backfield threat.

UCLA 24, California 21 — UCLA holds off strong challenge by revitalized California.

Basketball forms due today

Season Aggie basketball ticket applications must be returned to the Texas A&M Athletic Ticket office today, athletic ticket manager Jim Kotch said Thursday.

If being mailed, season ticket applications must be post-marked today in order to meet the deadline, Kotch said. Those applying in person must bring the completed forms to the ticket office by 4 this afternoon.

The Aggies open the season Nov. 20 by hosting the Athletes in Action in a preseason exhibition game in G. Rollie White Coliseum. Texas A&M will spend the Thanksgiving holiday participating in the Great Alaska Shootout, being held in Anchorage Nov. 26-28.

WASHINGTON — Reagan and House Speaker O'Neill duelled over the economy Saturday in the final phase of the campaign.

Reagan, leader of the party trying to defeat the national and gubernatorial election, said he "look at improving the economy, not just rates statistics." He said the program for economic recovery is "a job program for the future."

Stay the course, he said, repeating the campaign slogan "America needs a change." The Reagan prog-

YOUNGSTOWN — Youngstown was once a thriving economy as solid as the mills that made the town into the gem of the eastern Ohio.

But in the last half of the mills, Youngstown has plummeted. Many of those who once thrived on the slide fear the worst.

Latest government figures in August, 51,000 unemployed in the surrounding Youngstown area of 20.9 percent unemployment. The people on the
