He said the husband of one oisoning victim, Edwin Reiner, ad passed a lie detector test and as not a suspect. Arnold works with the father of Mary Reiner, the victim. Thomas J. Royce, Arnold's attorney, asked police to either charge Arnold or leave him alone. He accused police of harassing him and his client. Arnold has refused to take a lie

A court hearing for Arnold on unrelated charges of keeping unlicensed firearms was postponed until Nov. 22. Royce claimed the delay was a ploy to en bargainers de keep Arnold under surveillance

The nationwide search continued for James W. Lewis and his wife, Leann, also considered suspects in the case. Lewis is wanted on federal charges for writing an extortion letter demanding $1 million from the makers of Tylenol.

In Colorado, the state's three largest supermarket chains issued statewide removal orders for all Excedrin capsules and smaller retailers were expected to follow after the FDA's withdrawal announcement.

Authorities investigated to determine if there was a connection between the poisoning of William Sinkovic, who took Excedrin capsules, and the disappearance of a 4-ounce bottle of mercuric chloride from Staney Aviation Corp. in De-
