

movies on tap

Check theaters for specific times and prices. Movies subject to change without notice. All listings are current through press time.

Campus Theater 846-6512

Poltergeist: This horror movie is about a family that is terrorized by an evil force occupying their house. Perfect for Halloween viewing. PG.

An American Werewolf in London: The Dr. Pepper man stars in a movie about the transformation of a human into a wolf. Great make-up and special effects. Combines elements of a horror story with those of a love story. Midnight Friday and Saturday. R.

MSC Cepheid Variable: 845-1515

Allegro Non Troppo: An animated film from Italy set to the music of Vivaldi, Ravel and Debussy. Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

Plitt Cinema I&II 846-6714

Fast Times at Ridgemont High: Adapted from a book by Cameron Crowe who spent a year as an "undercover" student researching high school kids, this comedy provides new insight into the silliness and dignity of teenagers. Directed by first-timer Amy Heckerling. R.

National Lampoon's Class Reunion: From the same crew that made Animal House, this comedy is about a reunion and the memories of old classmates. R.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: The most bizarre treatment yet of the Frankenstein myth, complete with rock music, transvestism and kinky sex. Barry Bostwick and Susan Sarandon portray lost travelers who wander into Tim Curry's castle and experience a night to remember. Midnight Friday and Saturday. R.

Dawn of the Dead: Brought back especially for Halloween, this movie is a classic horror film with zombies, dark nights and creepy scenery. Midnight Friday and Saturday. Unrated.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-1515

Chariots of Fire: This is the story of two men who run in the Olympic games to prove something to themselves and the world. Voted Best Picture of 1981. Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

Poltergeist: This flick deals with the possession of a suburban home by an unknown force. The family resorts to drastic measures to handle an increasingly nasty situation. Midnight Friday and Saturday in Rudder Theater.

Fellini Satyricon: A film based on the theories of Freud's protege, Carl Jung. This movie explores a universe inhabited by dwarfs and nymphomaniacs. Playing Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

Oliver: An Academy-award winning picture, this film is based on "Oliver Twist" by Charles Dickens. Filled with dancing and singing, the movie is enjoyable and has a happy ending for those who hate to cry. Showing Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

Manor East 823-8300

Rocky III. Sylvester Stallone stars as everyone's favorite boxer, Rocky. In this feature, Rocky is rich and fights to stay that way, along with savoring his pride. Starring the same old characters from the past two Rocky films. PG.

An Officer and a Gentleman: Richard Gere stars as Zach Mayo, an officer candidate who learns what it takes to become a gentleman. Debra Winger is Paula, the young woman he meets and learns to love. R.

Fantasia: Re-discover this Disney animated classic as it is re-released in Dolby stereo. It's a fantasy story told through all music and all animation. G.

Young Frankenstein: This is a classical example of Mel Brooks at his best. As you guessed, it's about Frankenstein. We doubt you'll be scared unless you're afraid of laughing. Midnight Friday and Saturday. PG.

Post Oak: 764-0616

My Favorite Year: Peter O'Toole stars as an alcoholic actor whose friends try to keep him sober for a new show. PG.

E.T.: An alien from a distant planet is stranded on earth by his mother ship and hidden by a small boy. They learn from each other how to grow up alone on their planets. PG.

Monsignor: Christopher Reeve stars as a priest who steals from his country and church. And — whoops — he also loves a woman. R.

Schulman Six 775-2468

Mother Lode: Charlton Heston stars in this thriller. The producers follow the popular Raiders of the Lost Ark theme to bring the viewers in. PG.

Halloween III: Season of the Witch: Before you start thinking

Jamie Lee Curtis still hasn't found something better to do with her time, she has. She doesn't star in this one. This horror flick isn't even a sequel to the other two. Surprise. R.

The World According to Garp: Robin Williams stars as T. S. Garp, an unusual man who sees the world in a very unusual way. Based on the best-selling novel by John Irving. R.

Jekyll and Hyde — Together Again: The famous pair are together again in this comedy about the man whose personality changes. R.

It Came from Hollywood: A spoof on all of the really bad movies made in Hollywood. Stars Dan Akroyd and Cheech and Chong. PG.

The Sorceress: Another science fiction horror story to help make Halloween a little more creepy. No major stars. R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

Amityville II: The Possession: Discover, in this horror flick, what actually possessed the house in the previous movie, The Amityville Horror. R.

Dressed to Kill: Suspense-filled story starring Nancy Allen and Angie Dickinson. In this film, Allen plays a prostitute who helps hunt down a psychotic killer. R.

Corvette Summer: Movie starring Mark Hamill, alias Luke Skywalker, as a guy with a corvette who has plenty of time to race around the country. PG.

Jinxed: Bette Midler stars in this comedy about a performer trying to win her way through gambling. R.

At Ease

Editor Nancy Floeck
Assistant Editor Colette Hutchings
Writers Susan Dittman,
Dana Smelser

At Ease will consider any items submitted for publication, although the decision to publish lies solely with the editor. Deadline is 5 p.m. the Friday before publication.

Funny music lady

by Dana Smelser 3

Cheap Trick

by Gary Barker 4

Guess who's coming to t-t-town

by Colette Hutchings. 5

On the cover: Halloween — a time for ghouls, ghosts, goblins and graves. Psychics, pumpkins, haunted houses and strange happenings also come out on All Hallow's Eve. To find out how they all figure in this fiendish holiday, flip to pages 8 and 9. Cover photo by Ronnie Emerson.