MBA/Law Day spots careers

by Michael Larkin
Battalion Reporter

Students will have the opportunity to find out more about business and law careers in the annual MSC MBA/Law Day Saturday in the Academic and Agency building.

Representatives from all major Texas business and law institutions will be attending, including speakers from the Harvard business school and the University of Chicago law school, said Heather Miller, chairman of MSC MBA/Law Day committee.

The program will be held in two sections — the law program beginning at 8:30 a.m. and the MBA program at 1 p.m.

State Sen. Kent Caperton, a 1971 graduate of Texas A&M, will be the keynote speaker for the law program. William Heye of Texas Instruments, a 1960 graduate of Texas A&M, will be the keynote speaker for the business program.

Advance tickets are on sale at the MSC Box Office. Each program is $2 per person and the barbecue lunch is $4.50. Program tickets may be purchased for $2.50 and lunch tickets for $5 at the door.

MARANATHA ROCK AND ROLL SEMINAR

"And do not participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but instead even expose them."

Ephesians 5:11

Mick Jagger said a few years back, "It's only rock and roll." Sure, most young people like it and it is only just rock and roll... or is it? Vladimir Lenin said that the quickest way to destroy a society is through its music. Could it be that someone is trying to brainwash you through your stereo or the cassette recorder that's plugged into your ear?

Find out through a fact-filled mini-seminar that includes tapes and concert footage. The truth just may be the most startling thing that's ever happened to you.
