My Favorite Year: Considered by many national reviewers to be one of the best movies currently playing, this subtle comedy stars Peter O'Toole as an alcoholic actor. PG.

National Lampoon's Class Reunion: From the same crew that made Animal House, this comedy is about a reunion and the problems that old classmates face when one of their buddies becomes a psychotic killer and traps them in the school gym. R.

Manor East
823-8300

Rocky III. Sylvester Stallone stars as everyone's favorite boxer, Rocky. In this feature, Rocky is rich and fights to stay that way, along with savoring his pride. Starring the same old characters from the past two Rocky films. PG.

An Officer and a Gentleman: Richard Gere stars as Zach Mayo, an officer candidate who learns what it takes to become a gentleman. Debra Winger is Paula, the young woman he meets and learns to love. R.

Fantasia: Re-discover this Disney animated classic as it is re-released in Dolby stereo. It's a fantasy story told through all music and all animation. G.

Taps: When outside authorities threaten to close a military academy, Gen. Bache (George C. Scott) vows to "win the battle." Timothy Hutton takes this motto to heart and leads his classmates in an armed defense of the school. PG. Midnight movie.

Post Oak:
764-0616

Homework: In this Summer of '42-type movie, Joan Collins from Dynasty stars as an older woman who teaches a younger man certain things about life. R.

E.T.: An alien from a distant planet is stranded on earth by his mother ship and hidden by a small boy. They learn from each other. Bring Reeses' Pieces to munch on for special effects. PG.

Monsignor: Christopher Reeve stars as a priest who steals from his country and church. And — whoops — he also loves a woman. R.

MSC Cinema Aggie
845-1515

Sharky's Machine: Burt Reynolds stars in this police thriller about development of a vice squad into a relentless, crime-stomping machine. Lots of blood and chase scenes. Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

Richard Pryor live on the Sunset Strip: Richard Pryor filmed this flick after his accident with cocaine. Much of the Las Vegas show features jokes about this tragic accident. The movie proves that Pryor hasn't lost his sense of humor. Midnight Friday and Saturday in Rudder Theater.

The Wicker Man: Voted best screenplay by the Academy of Science Fiction/Fantasy and Horror Films, this film is about a provincial police inspector who becomes involved in occult rites and rituals while searching for a missing child. Playing Sunday at 7:30 p.m. in Rudder Theater.

MSC Cepheid
Variable:
845-1515

Fail Safe: The president of the United States must make a crucial decision about a pilot who fails to return from his bombing mission in this adventure film. Thursday at 7:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m. in 601 Rudder Tower.

Schulman Six
775-2468

Mother Lode: Charlton Heston stars in this thriller. The producers follow the popular Raiders of the Lost Ark theme to bring the viewers in. PG.

Halloween III: Season of the Witch: Before you start thinking Jamie Lee Curtis still hasn't found something better to do with her time, she has. She doesn't star in this one. This horror flick isn't even a sequel to the other two. Surprise! R.

The World According to Garp: Robin Williams stars as T. S. Garp, an unusual man who sees the world in a very unusual way. Based on the best-selling novel by John Irving. R.

Jekyl and Hyde — Together Again: The famous pair are together again in this comedy about the man whose personality changes. R.

It Came from Hollywood: A spoof on all of the really bad movies made in Hollywood. Stars Dan Akroyd and Cheech and Chong. PG.

The Sorceress: Another science fiction horror story to help make life a little more creepy. No major stars. R.

Skyway Twin Drive-In
822-3300

Pranks: A movie with no major stars that nobody seems to have heard of. Someone go and find out what the plot is. R.

Beyond the door: No folks, this is not the infamous porn flick of a similar name. This movie is another horror flick for those who like to be scared witless. R.

Forced Vengeance: A movie starring Chuck Norris as another karate hero. A lot of action and violence in this one. R.

Poltergeist: Another showing of Steven Spielberg's film about the possession of an urban home by an evil force. Good for a cold night and a cold date. PG.
