Food, crafts on exhibit Saturday at Earth Fair

by Kelley Smith

Battalion Reporter

An Earth Fair will be presented Saturday by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on the corner of Jersey and Dexter streets.

The fair will feature down-home exhibits on cheese-making, soap-making, gardening, sewing, quilt-making, bee-keeping, cooking with wheat and sourdough and canning, dehydrating and storing food at home.

Seventeen booths offering this information will be set up outside the Institute of Religion.

The methods of cooking that will be emphasized at the fair are nutritious and can be inexpensive, said Clair Nixon, an assistant professor of accounting who is a missionary in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

A genealogy exhibit with information on tracing family histories, the role of the family and ways to bring families closer also will be available.

"There will be a lot of experts in each area and we encourage people to browse through and ask questions," Nixon said.

The fair is designed to make the community aware of basic home crafts that are taught in the Mormon church, he said said.

"In church we are advised to be productive," Nixon said. "We are passing on the things we have learned to people who haven't."

Because people were curious about the mormons and their activities, church members decided three years ago to sponsor a fair, he said. This year's fair will be the third one, Nixon said, and they plan to sponsor one every year.

"The purpose is not to try to push the religion, we would just like to share what we have learned with the public," Nixon said. "However, if people would like to know more about the religion, we would be happy to talk with them."

'Spectrum' performs tonight in Rumours

If you like concerts — especially free ones — then you'll enjoy solid entertainment tonight and Saturday in the Memorial Student Center.

Spectrum, a band which has performed throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, and South America, will be the MSC Basement Committee's feature band this week at 8 p.m. in Room 201 of the MSC.

The combination rock-n-roll and rythm and blues band has performed with such groups as The Marshall Tucker Band, ZZ Top, Santana and Gino Vanelli. Their performances vary from concerts to show rooms, large audience, to intimate private parties. The group is a solid dancing and listening group.

The five-member band has been booked solid on the dance club circuit around the Southwest. Because of the versatility of the band and the diversity of the material Spectrum covers, they have a broad range of appeal. Most recently, the band finished a month long engagement at Remington's a top live music nightclub in Houston.

The concert is being sponsored by the MSC Basement Committee and is a part of the Miller High Life Rock '82 Series. Miller Brewing is sponsoring concerts on 28 campuses throughout the country in an effort to promote American rock.
