Firm can ship for right price

United Press International NEW YORK — If you want to

14K Gold Beads

SALE PRICES

3 mm - 53¢

4 mm - 83¢ 5 mm - $1.76

6 mm - $2.66

7 mm - $3.36

8 mm - $4.71

LAYAWAYS

ably is to call Schenkers.

The 110-year old West Ger-

GRAND OPENING SALE CONTINUES

Semi-Precious Beads

•Pearls•Garnet•Lapis

•Malachite•Many More

FINE JEWELRY

Formerly Cowarts Jewelry

All major credit cards accepted

Our Fine Selection of Jewelry which includes

year of $2.4 billion, won't blink fly giraffes from Kenya to a zoo man freight forwarding firm, an eye. If it can't find a commerin California your best bet probone of the world's largest with cial plane, Schenkers will borright, said Gerhart Stebich,

Add-A-Bead Chains

16" - $29.96

18" - $33.71 20" - $37.71

24" - $43.71

All Sizes

Available

CHARGES

415 University

SALE PRICES

300 offices and revenues last row a military plane for the job year of $2.4 billion, won't blink — provided the money is right.

president of Schenkers International Forwarders, the American subsidiary. "We aren't interested in forwarding giraffes for the sake of publicity."
Stebich says he has 28 offices in the United States and U.S. sales have grown from $37 million in 1972 to $259 million in

The Munich-born Stebich, who lives in Scarsdale, N.Y., expects business to grow because Americans are going to increase their international trade.

He says thousands of American businesses that never have tried to export much will do so in the years ahead. Ultimately, he expects the new Export Trading Company Act recently signed by President Reagan to be benefi-

Schenkers has attracted business by its attention to detail and its ability to handle special pro-

It moved all the machinery for the Japanese Nissan company's new light truck plant near Nashville, Tenn.

Pinning for bonfire

Stephanie Marshall, a soph- from Midland studying promotion and that bond David Storrie, a freshman rie decided he wanted a omore from Little Rock, computer science, even needed the help. The h Arkansas, studying market- though its a button for soph- tons are on sale in from ing, pins a bonfire button on omores, not freshmen. Stor- the quad for 50¢ apiece

Kun your

We're looking for a few good college students and graduates who can fill the shoes of a Marine Corps Officer. That's a pretty tall order. Because it means leading other Marines. Being a leader of the finest. Being responsible for their safety and welfare Being in charge. That's something no civilian job can offer you at 26. It's something very few people can ever measure up to. For those few who do meet our standards and have the drive to be a Marine Officer, we offer tuition assistance in the NROTC, Platoon Leaders Class (PLC), even a chance to join the Marine Reserve while you're still in college. If you think you're cut from the right mold, drop by your college placement center and set up an appointment with your Marine Corps Officer Selection Officer. Or call this number, 800-423-2600.

Maybe you can be one of us. The few. The proud. The Marines.

Survivalists ready for Armageddon

ROGUE RIVER, Ore. Driving past the small farms up East Evans Creek Road out of Rogue River, it's hard to tell where the "survivalists" are

That's all part of the plan.
An effective survival retreat homes nearby.

But the survivalists are there, learning to live off the land and to defend themselves and their families. They are loosely knit but share a common conviction: they expect collapse.

It could be from nuclear war or from governmental break-down, maybe due to another oil embargo or runaway inflation.

These survivalists are in southern Oregon — reportedly several thousand of them, mostly in a 20-mile radius in the Grants Pass-Rogue River area for several reasons.

Bob McQuain, a survivalist and Grants Pass Realtor of the Year for 1982, explained why the group chose southern

"Southern Oregon appeals because of its mild weather conditions, no extreme hot or cold or rain and good climactic seasons for growing.

Rogue River is five hours by car from Portland and seven from San Francisco, too far for urban refugees to make it on one tank of gasoline if collapse

some experts as the safestin United States.

Government reports on effects of nuclear exchange mate that this little pocke southern Oregon would be of radiation within 48 l giving a chance of survivals out fallout shelters.

McQuain, who used to b actor in such television seri "Gunsmoke" and "Pe Mason," was a friend of Y Tappen, the guru of the sun alist movement.

Tappen moved into the ar in 1977 and soon was publish his Personal Survival Newslett from a ranch in Rogue River, died unexpectedly last year kidney failure. His wife, Nan continues the publication, wh she says has nearly 1,000 sub scribers.

it takes

straight,

uest to rea

The con Jungeons

"It's a lo levably ed Fred Zar,

lois Medic

han 15 m

Student

The newsletter is full of mate rial on "weapons, a lot of alte native energy this year, bart food, medicine, homestead that kind of thing," she sa "We cover just about everyth you need to be selfsufficient" It is not cheap to be a sur

McQuain, who works under contract to seek out propert said, "A good, average minifa or mini-ranch and you're k ing at $100,000 to $150,000." He said minifarms average to 10 acres and include a sm ranch house, barn, outbu ings, pasture, fruit trees, garde The area also is regarded by spots and good water.

Friday & Theatre

All Movies $1.50 With TAMU ID