think they won't be tight against A&M."

Senior quarterback Tom Jones probably will start against the Aggies. Jones had given up his starting position to sophomore Brad Taylor in the Baylor game.

AGGIE FACTS: The Razorbacks' Holtz, known almost as much for his one-liners as for his coaching abilities, came up with a few quotable remarks before the 1982 season. Here are a few of those memorable quotes:

On finding the right combinations: "We're looking for things to fall into place. It's comparable to drilling for oil. You know it's around but it might all be in your neighbor's yard."

On senior end Billy Ray Smith, the anchor of Arkansas' league-leading defensive unit: "He's like my children. The more they eat, the more they want to eat. I've never seen anyone win so many awards and work even harder."

On 6-foot-2-inch, 270-pound offensive lineman Steve Korte:

"He's so big the players have nicknamed him the U.S.S. Korte."

On running back-wide receiver Anderson: "The worst thing about him is he isn't twins."

More on Anderson: "He's so talented, he does things you can't believe. You ought to see him play tennis against himself."

On his sideline position: "I squat when I'm on the sidelines because it makes a tougher target for out fans to hit."

On the Cotton Bowl: "In my five years at Arkansas we've been to some great bowls but we've never been to the Cotton Bowl. This year we are going to the Cotton Bowl. They may not invite us, but we're going anyway." ... The Aggies' last victory in Little Rock came in 1971, when 2-5 Texas A&M stunned the 6-1 Hogs, 17-9. The Aggie Ladies basketball team opens the 1982-83 season tonight by hosting Southwestern at 7 in G. Rollie White Coliseum. The men's basketball team opens with an exhibition against Athletes in Action Oct. 20 at 7:30 in the coliseum.
