

Donlan, Garvey working out NFL contract kinks

United Press International
WASHINGTON — Chief NFL negotiator Jack Donlan and players' union boss Ed Garvey met again Tuesday to iron out last-minute disagreements in the tentative agreement that ended the 57-day football strike but still troubles some union members.

The two sides talked past midnight Monday at the union's Washington offices preparing final documents in the agreement, which has come under fire since it was announced Nov. 16. Union officials refused to discuss the Tuesday morning session, but it was learned that attorneys Richard Berthelsen and Joseph A. Yablonski joined Garvey at the meeting. Donlan, executive director of the NFL Management Council, Sargent Karch, assistant director, and Dennis Currin, legal counsel, attended as well, according to NFLMC spokesman Jim Miller.

"We've got a deal and I guess he (Donlan) just went to tell him (Garvey) that a deal is a deal," Miller said. "I think the reason behind (the meeting) is to clarify some language in the contract." Several provisions of the tentative contract have drawn fire from the NFLPA rank and file, which is expected to vote Friday on the pact that ended the first strike in the league's 63-year history.

Green Wave's coach resigns

United Press International
NEW ORLEANS — Tulane head football coach Vince Gibson resigned Tuesday, just three days after the Green Wave defeated nationally ranked Louisiana State University, 31-28.

Tulane was highly touted before the season began, but compiled a 4-7 record.

Gibson's resignation letter was read by Athletic Director Hindman Wall at a hastily called news conference. Gibson, 49, left his post after athletic officials refused to extend his contract.

He was not present at the news conference.

"After the type of frustrating season we experienced, I asked for an extension of my contract," the statement said. "I felt this way we could have an opportunity for a successful recruiting year."

"The university did not think an approval of an extension was appropriate at this time. Therefore, taking both the type of year and the disapproval of the extension of my contract... I feel it is in the best interest of the university and the football program that I resign."

Bucs' McKay all smiles after victory over Miami

United Press International
TAMPA, Fla. — Tampa Bay coach John McKay says the Buccaneers' 23-17 victory over Miami was a big triumph over a solid football team.

The swarming Tampa defense intercepted five passes and recovered one Monday night, and McKay said Tuesday that his team was the difference.

"Miami is a very solid team," he said, "but when you turn the football six times, it's to hurt you. And Miami is not enough to still make it despite those turnovers."

One interception set Tampa Bay touchdown, set up a field goal and two Miami drives.

Bill Capece kicked field of 27 and 28 yards to give Bucs a 6-3 halftime lead. Uwe Von Schamann scored for Miami on a 29-yard goal.

Tampa Bay quarterback Doug Williams finally broke a touchdown drought in the period when he rolled right and scored from 36 yards out. Capece added a third field goal of the 36-yarder, before Miami scored a touchdown.
