

Erving breaks loose as Philly wins

United Press International
Moses Malone leads the Philadelphia 76ers in scoring and rebounding but his biggest contribution to the team might be the freedom he gives Julius Erving to roam.

Erving was especially appreciative of the 6-foot-10 center's presence in Philadelphia's 116-108 victory over the Suns Thursday night in Phoenix. The 76ers' small forward scored 34 points, complementing the outside play of guard Andrew Toney and the inside work of Malone.

Toney, who hit 15-of-17 free throws, led all scorers with 34 points and Malone added 19 points and 17 rebounds.

"Even though I'm technically a small forward, you know, 6-foot-6, 206 pounds, I basically play in the low post and over the last four or five years, I've earned a living as a low post," Erving said. "He (Malone) has sort of given me the freedom to roam the court more and not make it a requirement for Julius Erving to be under the basket all night in order for our team to play up to its potential."

Phoenix Coach John MacLeod felt his team played below its potential, especially while committing seven turnovers in the last six minutes. The Suns' turnovers helped Philadelphia score five straight late for a comfortable 107-100 lead.

"We threw the ball away and had some big turnovers at the end of the game," MacLeod said. "We've got to get that corrected."

In other games, Dallas topped Golden State, 110-100, and Utah downed Portland, 119-112.

MAVERICKS 110, WARRIORS 100 — At Dallas, Mark Aguirre scored 27 points and Rolando Blackman tossed in 22 to lead Dallas. Purvis Short scored 40 points for Golden State and J.B. Carroll added 30, but it wasn't enough to save the Warriors from their eighth straight road loss and their eighth defeat in the last nine games.

JAZZ 119, TRAIL BLAZERS 112 — At Salt Lake City, Adrian Dantley had 37 points and 11 assists, and Utah outscored Portland 12-2 late in the final quarter. For the Jazz, Darrell Griffith scored 20 points and Dan Schayes had 19 points and 11 rebounds. Calvin Natt led the Blazers with 29 points, Mychal Thompson had 24 points and 13 rebounds and Jim Paxson scored 22 points.

A&I's Green, ETSU's Mackey top list of All-LSC selections

United Press International
NACOGDOCHES — Texas A&I defensive back Darrell Green, Southwest Texas State linebacker Tim Staskus, East Texas State quarterback Kyle Mackey and Abilene Christian center Grant Feasel head the 1982 Coaches' All-Lone Star Conference football team announced Thursday.

Green, a senior from Houston, also received the J.W. "Dough" Rollins Award as the outstanding defensive back in the conference.

Staskus, a junior from Houston, won the J.V. "Siki" Sikes award as the outstanding defensive lineman.

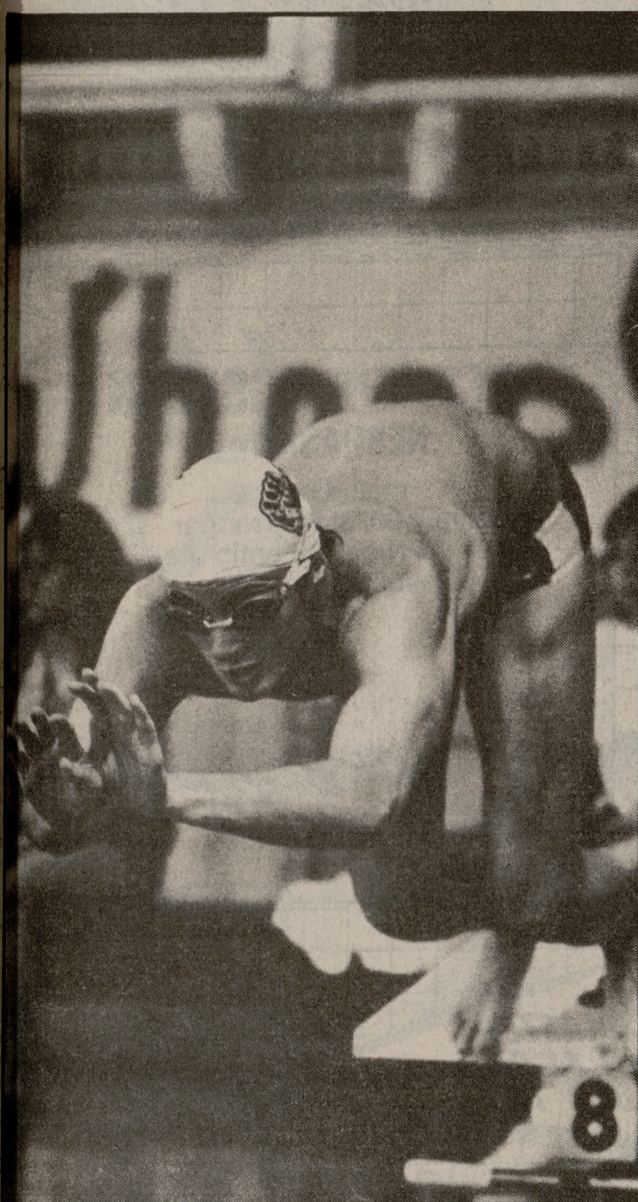

Mackey, son of Dee Mackey, ETSU's only two-sport all-American, received the offensive back of the year award. The junior from Alpine led the conference in passing with a 208.4 yard-per-game average, despite missing the final two games with a knee injury.

Feasel, the largest member of the all-star team at 6-foot-7, 260 pounds, was voted offensive lineman of the year.

Repeating from last year's first team with Green and Feasel, were SWT defensive back Mike Langford, ACU defensive lineman Richard Flores, SWT defensive lineman Mike Bailiff, SWT linebacker Cyril Friday, ACU offensive guard Scott McCall and SWT offensive tackle Rick Sowell.

SWT coach Jim Wacker, who led the Bobcats to their third consecutive conference title this season, was named coach of the year.

UCLA squeaks by DePaul 73-70

United Press International
UCLA, eligible for the NCAA tournament this season, got a whiff of post-season pressure Thursday night.

"These close games are going to build confidence," UCLA Coach Larry Fryer said.

Maybe an ulcer, too. In a tense affair at the Horizon in Rosemont, Ill., the sixth-ranked Bruins defeated 17th-ranked DePaul, 73-70, in overtime, ending the Blue Demons' 27-game winning streak at home. Their previous loss came in January 1981 to Old Dominion.

The Bruins, who dissipated an 11-point lead in the first half, were carried by Darren Daye, who finished with 23 points, including two foul shots in overtime. But, if it hadn't been for a sudden reversal of form, UCLA would have concluded matters in regulation.

After Jerry McMillan gave DePaul a 65-64 lead with 39 seconds left in regulation, UCLA appeared ready to end it. Rod Foster was fouled on a baseline jumper. But his first shot banged around the hoop before falling out. His second shot forced overtime.

An overtime basket by Foster with 4:10 left gave UCLA a 3-point lead and the Blue Demons — whose only regular-season loss last year was to UCLA — were all but out of it.

"If we had played one more overtime, we would have had them," said DePaul Coach Ray Meyer, who coached his first game for DePaul exactly 40 years ago. "When was the last time we ever wore down a UCLA team?"

In other games, Barry Stevens scored 30 points to carry Iowa State over Minnesota, 80-78, in overtime; Phil Smith, a 5-foot-10 guard, sank two free throws with 17 seconds remaining as New Mexico edged Southern California, 77-74; Anthony Byrd scored 23 points to send Georgia Tech over St. Francis (N.Y.), 76-54; Derek Harper and freshman Scott Meents had 13 points each as Illinois blew by Valparaiso, 94-59.
