Airplane: Robert Hayes stars in this hilarious spoof of the Airport movies of the seventies. See what really happens in the cockpit of an airplane. R. Friday and Saturday at 7:30 in Rudder Theater.

Caddyshack: This movie takes a wild irreverent swing at country club life. Bill Murray and Chevy Chase are the same zany men they were on Saturday Night Live and as always Rodney Dangerfield gets no respect. R. Friday and Saturday at 9:00 in Rudder Theater.

Monty Python Live at the Hollywood Bowl: Britain's most popular comedians bring a little bit of their humor to the states to test it on the Americans. And it works. R. Friday and Saturday midnight in Rudder Theater.

Diva: In this French film, Diva is an opera-intoxicated 18-year-old mail carrier, who becomes entangled in a web of murder, intrigue, and passion. R. Sunday at 7:30 in Rudder Theater.

Fiddler on the Roof: This spectacular movie is adapted from one of Broadway's best loved musicals. The film is the celebration of a people's survival and the importance of tradition. G. Wednesday at 7:30 in Rudder Theater.

Bladerunner: Harrison Ford plays a mercenary in a future metropolis. His job is to hunt down and destroy four escaped Replicants — artificially created humans. Rutger Hauer plays the dangerous leader of the Replicants who does all in his power to help them escape and survive the world that is hostile toward them. PG. Thursday at 7:30 and 10.

Plitt Cinema I&II
846-6714

The Dark Crystal: This is a fantasy using a new breed of Jim Henson's Muppets. The flick is about an alien world where strange creatures set out on a noble quest. PG.

The Toy: A comedy starring Richard Pryor and Jackie Gleason. It is about a rich man who hires a poor man to be a plaything for his spoiled son. PG.

Manor East
823-8300

The Man From Snowy River: Kirk Douglas stars in this western about a boy suddenly alone in the world who helps a struggling girl. In Dolby Stereo. PG.

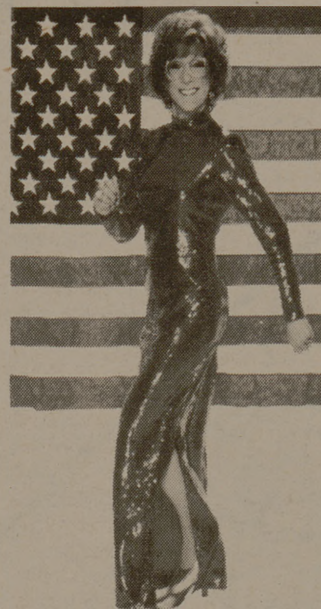

Time Rider: This movie is about a champion off-road racer. All in Dolby Stereo. PG.

Kiss Me Goodbye: In this comedy, Sally Field plays a widow who's planning to remarry — despite the appearance of her first husband's ghost. Jeff Bridges is the new husband to be; James Caan is the ghost. PG.

The Best Little Whorehouse in Texas: First the Whorehouse papers, then the play and now the movie. All of course are about one of the greatest Texas traditions — The Chicken Ranch and its ultimate downfall. Midnight. R.

Post Oak:
764-0616

Tootsie: Dustin Hoffman stars as an unemployed actor who impersonates a woman to land an acting job on a soap opera. PG.

E.T.: An alien from a distant planet is stranded on earth by his mother ship and hidden by a small boy. They learn from each other.

Bring Reeses' Pieces to munch on for special effects. PG.

48Hrs: This movie stars Nick Nolte in a comedy and crime spoof. R.

Schulman Six
775-2468

First Blood: This flick stars the ever-popular Sylvester Stallone as a man persecuted by the law for no apparent reason. Includes a lot of Rocky-type violence. R.

Ator: Miles O'Keefe is the virile hero in this sword and sorcery epic. PG.

Best Friends: Burt Reynolds and Goldie Hawn are scriptwriters who decide to get married because they have so much fun living together. But, it's never the same after the wedding. PG.

Still of the Night: Roy Scheider plays a psychiatrist in love with a mysterious woman, played by Meryl Streep, who may or may not be a killer. PG.

The Verdict: Paul Newman plays a washed-up Boston lawyer gets a chance to redeem himself during a high-stakes malpractice suit. R.

Savannah Smiles: This movie is about a little girl who makes a lot of people happy. PG.
