

Aggie Ladies defeat SMU

The Texas A&M women's basketball team defeated SMU 77-60 Saturday, raising their record to 9-9 for the season and 3-3 in Southwest Conference play. The Aggie Ladies were led by Michelle Tatum, who scored 18 points, and Jenni Edgar and Lynette Joiner who finished with 17 points each. Texas A&M meets the Texas Lady Longhorns Saturday, beginning at 1:30.

The men's track team finished first in the ninth annual Sooner Relays on Saturday. Coach Charlie Thomas' squad ended the meet with 102 points, 1/2 of a point ahead of Baylor, to capture the championship.

A total of 10 Aggies scored in four of five field events to pace Texas A&M. The meet came down to the final event, the pole vault, and the Aggies got second and third place finishes from freshman Mark Bruce and senior Rob Montgomery to overtake the Bears.

The women's track team finished fifth in the meet. Places and times for the Aggies in the Sooner Relays:

With the win, Texas A&M raised its record to 9-9 on the year and 3-2 in conference play. The Aggies will play next on Tuesday, when they travel to Fort Worth to face the TCU Horned Frogs.

AGGIE FACTS: The 7,532 Aggie supporters that attended Saturday's game were part of the largest crowd of the year at G. Rollie White Coliseum ... Gilbert's 16 points Saturday were a career-high for the Huntsville native ... It seems the Aggies are finally starting to play the kind of basketball coach Shelby Metcalf likes. Texas A&M has now won five of their last six games ... One reason the Aggies might be faring better is that Riley has just about recovered from a bout with mono. His eighteen points Saturday was his high since coming back from the illness ... At least one of the fans that attended Saturday's game had a pretty good knowledge of what was going on during the contest. David Britton, a member of the Texas A&M championship teams of the late '70's, was a face in the crowd ... When the Aggies travel to TCU Tuesday, a lot more will be at stake than just another win for the Aggies.

Should Texas A&M upset the Horned Frogs it will take over third place in the Southwest Conference.
