

UCLA still nation's best

United Press International
NEW YORK — Nevada-Las Vegas, the nation's only major unbeaten college basketball team, continues to inch its way up the Top 20 ladder.

After going unnoticed through the first week of ratings, Nevada-Las Vegas crept into the Top 20 at No. 19 in mid-December. In recent weeks, it moved up steadily and Monday, the Runnin' Rebels improved one position to No. 8 in balloting by UPI's Board of Coaches.

With Pacific Coast Athletic Association triumphs over Long Beach State and Fullerton State last week, Nevada-Las Vegas received 323 points from the 40 participating members of the 42-coach UPI Board.

While the Runnin' Rebels hope to continue their run to the top, UCLA solidified its No. 1 rating with 22 first-place votes and 570 points. The Bruins, 13-1, posted Pacific-10 Conference victories last week over California and Stanford.

UCLA, which reached No. 1 for the first time in nearly four years last week, gained six additional first-place votes from a week ago to outdistance No. 2 Indiana, 14-1, which totaled 15 first-place votes and 559 points.

Taking over undisputed possession of third place was North Carolina, tied for that spot with Memphis State last week. North Carolina, 14-3, got one first-place vote and 483 points.

Virginia, battling North Carolina for the Atlantic Coast Conference lead, moved up two places to No. 4 after running its record to 15-2 during the week with three victories.

Memphis State, 14-1, slipped two notches to fifth despite winning its only two games during the week and St. John's moved up one place to No. 6 after beating two Big East Conference foes to raise its record to 16-1.

Louisville, 15-2, moved up one spot to No. 7 followed by Nevada-Las Vegas and No. 9 Houston, 15-2, which jumped three places after victories over Texas Tech and previously unbeaten Arkansas. Louisville and Nevada-Las Vegas each received one first-place vote.

Kentucky, 13-3, climbed three places to No. 10 after posting victories over Southeastern Conference rivals Florida and Vanderbilt.

Heading the second 10 was Arkansas, 14-1, which slumped six places after its loss to the Cougars, Villanova, 12-2, moved up two notches to No. 12 and the Wildcats were followed by Missouri, 14-3, which dropped two places following a 60-59 overtime loss to Marquette on Sunday.

Illinois State, 13-1, continued to move upwards, advancing three places to No. 14 after a 54-53 triumph over rugged Wichita State. Georgetown, 13-4, advanced one place to No. 15 while Iowa, 12-3, tumbled six places to No. 16 after splitting a pair of Big Ten games.

Minnesota, 12-3, moved up one place to No. 17; Syracuse, 13-3, dropped three spots into a tie for No. 18 with Washington State, 13-2; and Wake Forest, 14-2, rounded out the Top 20.

The records for each team are for games played through Sunday, Jan. 23.

Hogs outshoot Texas as Walker scores 28

United Press International
FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. — Arkansas, behind guard Darrell Walker's 28 points, overpowered a hot-shooting Texas Longhorn squad Monday to post an 83-64 Southwest Conference win.

The 11th-ranked Razorbacks, coming off their first loss of the season in a 75-60 decision to Houston Saturday, forced the Longhorns into 28 turnovers. Texas, however, stayed in the game by shooting 66 percent from the field, hitting 75 percent of its field goals in the first half.

With the victory, Arkansas advanced its record to 15-1 overall and 5-1 in the SWC. Texas dropped to 6-10 on the season and 1-4 in league play.

Arkansas jumped to an early lead and coach Eddie Sutton substituted for his entire starting lineup when the Razorbacks led 16-8 with 10:42 left in the half. Before the starters returned, Texas whittled the lead center Carlton Cooper Wendlandt in double figures with 12 points.

Sutton said the many turnovers Arkansas' Texas into was the key to Razorback triumph.

"When you look at the number of turnovers we forced can see why we won," the Arkansas coach said. "Our defense sound all night. When we forced them, we forced them."

Sutton said the performance "wasn't beautiful," but a victory that kept the Razorbacks one game behind Houston defeated in league play ranked ninth nationally.

In other SWC action Monday, the Texas Tech Red Raiders defeated the Rice Owls in overtime in Lubbock game, originally scheduled Saturday night, was postponed until Monday because of a storm that left 17 inches of snow on the ground in Lubbock.
