A Review of the Fall 1983 MSC Programs...

Cultural Programs

ARTS

Chairman: Todd Stansbury
This committee sponsored art exhibits as well as the NTSU Jazz Band and the Deborah Hay Dance Company.

BLACK AWARENESS

Chairman: Kelsel Thompson
A successful choir extravaganza entitled "Gospel-fest" where gospel choirs from several Texas universities participated was sponsored by this committee. They also brought several speakers and provided tutoring sessions for its members.

COMMITTEE FOR AWARENESS OF MEXICAN-AMERICAN CULTURE

Chairman: Deborah Molina
This committee brought "Ballet Gran Folklorico de Mexico" along with a mariachi band.

OPERA PERFORMING ARTS SOCIETY (OPAS)

Chairman: Michael Dewey
Outstanding classical entertainers such as Anna Russel, the Houston Ballet, and "I Musici" were presented by this committee. High noon concert series throughout the semester were also given.

TRAVEL

Chairman: John Visser
This committee provided two ski trips to Purgatory and Winterpark at reasonable rates and hosted an overseas day presenting study and travel abroad opportunities.

Educational Programs

FREE UNIVERSITY

Chairman: Paul Hoepfer
Country dance — jitterbug lessons, first aid, bartending, conversational German... these are just a few of the many non-credit courses this committee offered several times during the semester.

GREAT ISSUES

Chairman: David Franz
Leading speakers on crucial issues such as Ralph Nader, Stuart Taylor, General V. A. Walters, and Edward Teller were welcomed by this active committee.

POLITICAL FORUM

Chairman: David Hamilton
Famous political speakers such as Robert White, Jim Collins, and Kent Caperton were scheduled by this committee. They also sponsored Political Awareness Week featuring speakers, debates, a mock student election, and an open house of representatives from various state lobbying groups.

STUDENT CONFERENCE ON NATIONAL AFFAIRS (SCONA)

Chairman: Michael Carson
This committee spent the fall raising over $75,000 to bring in key speakers to a conference this spring on the Latin American Challenges. They also spent a week introducing the conference to the students by tables and banners.

Entertainment Programs

AGGIE CINEMA

Chairman: Becky Laird
This committee ran many popular, classical, and international films for the community such as "On Golden Pond," "Chariots of Fire," "Arthur," and "Taps."

BASEMENT

Chairman: Ken Bunch
A wide variety of programming was brought by this committee ranging from Jean Kilbourn to Omar and the Howlers to Barron, the Hypnotist.

CEPHEID VARIABLE

Chairman: Angela Partain
This science fiction/fantasy committee sponsored films such as "Star Wars" and "Cat People." They also brought a speaker on Poltergeists and the Itty Bitty Con.

TOWN HALL

Chairman: Darryl Heath
Record crowds were drawn to the many concerts sponsored by this committee. Entertainers such as Spyrogyra, Red Skeleton, The Motels, Alabama, Willie Nelson, and Broadway plays like "Annie" and "Deathtrap" were featured.

VIDEO TAPE

Chairman: Steve Stockman
Professionally taped programs on a variety of subjects and of groups performing were shown by this committee on their monitors in the MSC.

Recreational Programs

AMATEUR RADIO

Chairman: Mark Belcher
Amateur radio communication was promoted by this committee by giving demonstrations and offering radio licensing classes. They aided communication at Aggiecross and Bonfire and offered the use of W5AC, an amateur radio station, to all its members.

CAMERA

Chairman: Kevin Sokora
This committee provided a variety of programs and services as well as darkroom facilities. They also hosted a Fall Photo Contest and sold Bonfire prints.

HOSPITALITY

Chairman: Beth Ann Hendrix
An award winning float was sponsored by this committee in the Bryan-College Station Christmas parade. Fashion shows and seasonal parties were also presented. They also began work on the Miss TAMU Scholarship Pageant.

RECREATION

Chairman: Steve Daniels
Competition in backgammon and table tennis was coordinated by this committee along with events such as the Teasipping Contest and Minicon, a smaller version of Warcon.

OUTDOOR RECREATION (ORC)

Chairman: Morris Salge
This committee sponsored presentations and seminars on wilderness schools and outdoor skills. They also coordinated campouts with canoeing, rafting, and backpacking to places like Big Bend National Park.

MSC COUNCIL PROJECTS

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Businessmen and lawyers provided a seminar called MCA/Law Day to inform students of opportunities.

CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

The MSC Lounge was decorated and various groups performed such as the Singing Cadets and Women's Chorus.

COLLEGE BOWL

Teams of Aggies matched their wits in this quiz show and prepared to proceed to regional tournaments.

FALL LEADERSHIP

Student leaders convoked for a three day workshop in August in Trinidad, Texas.

LOST AND FOUND AUCTION

Various articles were auctioned to the highest bidder in the MSC.

MADRIGAL DINNERS

The medieval past was brought to life with five elegant evenings of food, song, and high spirits during the Christmas season.

OPEN HOUSE

An estimated 5,000 persons attended this project to view booths set up by all school organizations.

WELCOME BACK PICNIC

MSC members were reunited with an afternoon of hot dogs and fun contests in the fall.
