

Kleine, Walker lead scoring

Arkansas rolls past Baylor

United Press International
WACO — Arkansas center Joe Kleine's season-high 25 points and guard Darrell Walker's 20 helped the ninth-ranked Razorbacks post a 81-66 victory over the Baylor and break a two-game losing streak on the Bears' home court.

The victory Monday night kept Arkansas within a game of the Southwest Conference leading and sixth-ranked Houston, the only team this season to defeat the Razorbacks, who improved their league record to 8-1 and season mark to 19-1.

Arkansas coach Eddie Sutton has been looking forward to the rematch with Houston March 3 since the Cougars' big win over the Razorbacks in January. He did not hesitate to mention the game after the Baylor victory.

"Houston right now may be playing better than anybody in college basketball," he said. "I voted in UPI and I voted them number one. I was impressed the way they played against A&M."

Kleine, a 6-11 sophomore who transferred to Arkansas from Notre Dame, came into the Baylor game after posting his previous high total of 20 points a week ago in a win over Wake Forest. With the quick backcourt pair of Darrell Walker and Alvin Robertson in foul trouble, Kleine took charge against the Bears.

With Baylor hanging close in the second half, Kleine scored eight points over an eight-minute stretch to keep Arkansas in front. In addition to Kleine's 25 points, Robertson had 13 for the Razorbacks. Walker scored 10 of his 20 points in the last two minutes of the game.

Baylor trailed by as many as 13 in the first half, but came back to cut its halftime deficit to 31-26. The Bears could come no closer than five points in the second period, but the deficit stayed less than 10 until the final minutes of the game. Daryl Baucham paced the Baylor effort with 14 points.

The Bears, who had beaten Arkansas in Waco three of the past four years, saw their conference record slip to 2-8 and they are 10-11 overall.

Sutton said the Razorbacks had the chance to put the game away early in the first half, but mistakes and turnovers allowed the Bears to stay close. He said Arkansas, however, played with more poise in the second half.

"Overall this has to be one of our best games of the year because our shot selection was good, our defense was sound, our rebounding was good," he said. "When you have those three things going for you, you have a chance to beat anybody."

Sutton praised the play of Kleine, Walker and Robertson, noting he wished he could "bottle up" their performances for future games.

"I made the comment the other day if Walker, Robertson and Kleine all played well in one game, then it's going to be tough for teams in our league, maybe with the exception of Houston. Houston has so much firepower."

Sutton said Baylor Monday night did not perform as well as in the teams' game earlier this season that Arkansas won 65-60 in Fayetteville.

Aggies tie OU for third in Columbia Lakes golf

The Aggie men's golf team finished in a tie for third at the second annual Columbia Lakes Intercollegiate tournament, played in West Columbia Sunday and Monday.

The Aggies, shooting a team total of 1,146 over 54 holes, finished behind Texas, at 1,117, and Houston, second at 1,141. The remainder of the team standings include: TCU, fifth at 1,169; St. Thomas, sixth at 1,194; Baylor, seventh at 1,197; Northeast Louisiana, eighth at 1,198; North Texas State, ninth at 1,224; Texas Tech, 10th at 1,233; Southwestern Louisiana, 11th at 1,252, and Rice, 12th at 1,254.

Individually, Oklahoma's Andrew Magee shot 103 over the final 27 holes Monday to capture individual honors at the second annual Columbia Lakes Intercollegiate.

Magee shot 110 Sunday on 27 holes, one stroke off the pace set by Texas' Brandel Chamblee and Steen Tinning. Chamblee finished second, while Texas' Mark Brooks took third place. Tinning and Houston's John Slaughter tied for fourth.

The Aggies were paced by Gary Krueger, who shot 72 to finish with a 227. Here are the other Texas scores: Danny Briggs, 78-72-82; Paul Mayo, 77-77-75; Paul Oglesby, 76-73-82; Jacky Lee, 78-74-79; David Jones, 79-75-78.

Texas A&M will compete next in the Henry Homer Invitational, which takes place Thursday through Sunday in Beaumont. The Aggie women's team will play in the Lady Invitational in Gainesville this weekend.

Women's rugby team defeat SA Nones 1-0 on field goal

The Aggie women's rugby team, battling a muddy field and bad weather, defeated the San Antonio Nones by a score of 1-0 this weekend at Olmos Park in San Antonio.

Texas A&M, coached by Nealette Thomas, won its second game of the cup season against no losses. The Aggies defeated the Oklahoma Rose last weekend 12-0.

In Saturday's match, the teams ended regulation play and two "overtime" periods in a scoreless tie, but Lisa Scarborough kicked the winning field goal. The first overtime was a 15-minute period played with 15 team members on each squad; the second overtime lasted 7 minutes and was played with seven members of the team on the field.

After the two overtime periods from each team, Lisa Scarborough kicked the winning field-goal and the four.

The Aggies will play their next matches Feb. 26 against the University of New Orleans and LSU in Houston.
