Dolphins say no to rematch idea

United Press International MIAMI — The Miami Dolphins have no plans to play the world champion Washington Redskins in a rematch of the 1983 Super Bowl in London, the owner of the Dolphins says. Promoter John Marshall and Tottenham Hotspur, an English League first-division soccer team, have applied to be joint promoters of a game between the Super Bowl champion Washington Redskins and the Dolphins, the team they beat, 27-17, Jan. 30. The promoters would like the game to be played at Wembley Stadium in London.

But Robbie said Wednesday he knows nothing about the proposed match.

"We have not been contacted by the London promoters, nor have we discussed this proposal with the NFL," he said. "We are scheduled to play the Redskins in the third weekend of pre-season. This schedule has been approved by the NFL."

Aggies defeat Rice despite slow-down

by Frank L. Christlieb

Battalion Staff HOUSTON — Just when Tommy Suits' Rice Owls thought they had slowed Texas A&M to a turtle-slow walking pace, the Aggies started rolling. And slowly but surely, Texas A&M rolled out of Autry Court with a narrow 51-45 victory over the Owls Wednesday night.

Texas A&M, which never led by more than nine points during the game, tried to open up with their fast-paced brand of basketball, but the Owls wouldn't have any part of it. Taking their time to set up the team's offense, Rice guards Ivan Pettit and Tracy Steele made the Aggies slow down to the Owls' kind of game.

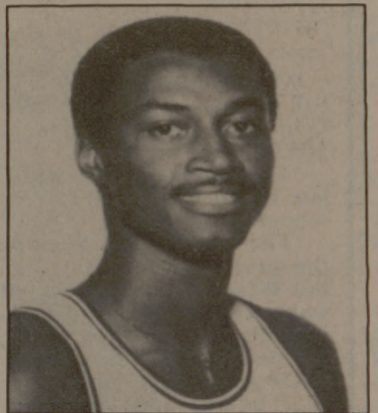

As a result, Texas A&M led only 26-20 at halftime, and was never able to quicken the tempo of the game. But a 9-minute Rice scoring drought in the second half enabled the Aggies to pull away for the victory.

Aggie Coach Shelby Metcalf said the Owls' patience nearly paid off.

"Rice played well and played a really disciplined ball game," Metcalf said. "Tommy's done a great job with his ball club. They've really improved a lot since we last played them (Jan. 8, when the Aggies won 76-63 in G. Rollie White Coliseum)."

"They're tough. They block out as well as any team I've seen. We had 17 offensive rebounds against Houston (when the Aggies lost 86-66 Saturday), but we didn't have anywhere near that tonight. We were very nervous about this ball game. They were gracious hosts, and we just weren't playing well. We couldn't up the tempo ... the game was played at the tempo they wanted to play at."

The Aggies, now 6-4 in the Southwest Conference and 12-

Claude Riley scored 12 points to lead Texas A&M

11 overall, opened up a 6-0 lead to start the game, as Roy Jones connected on a layup and Jimmie Gilbert had two layups. Texas A&M built up a 7-point lead with 10:31 remaining in the first half, as two baskets by senior forward Claude Riley made the score 14-7. The Aggies' Kenny Brown hit three jumpers to give his team a 20-12 lead at the 6:41 mark, but Texas A&M could never move ahead by more than eight points in the closing minutes of the half.

To start the second half, Rice cut the lead to 28-26 on two free throws from Tony Barnett, a jumper by Pettit and another basket by Barnett. However, the Aggies once again mounted a 6-point lead on a driving shot by senior guard Tyren Naualls and a layup by guard Reggie Roberts.

Rice took its only lead of the game, 38-36, with 9:15 to play, as Renaldo O'Neal made a layup from the right side on an assist by Barnett. But just as quickly, the Owls went cold and didn't score another point until 39 seconds remained in the game. By that time, the Aggies had a "safe" 47-38 lead, thanks to buckets by Naualls, Riley and Brown.

Suits, whose squad has had to regroup after losing three key players during the last said the Owls are playing better than at any during the season.

"We're not trying to ball out there," Suits said. "We're just trying to get the shots we think make. That's the reason we're playing better. Our guys are picking the shots they can make."

Early in January, the starting forward Kenny Brown because of academic probation. Suits kicked guard Washington and Teddison off the team about two weeks ago, but since then, the Owls have been better as a team.

"I thought this was a game we've played all year playing the way we want it," Suits said. "The Aggies to take us to their tempo first of the game, but (Pettit) and Tracy (Steele) slowed it down, basketball played it the way we want it."

"To be honest, I think think A&M could play at that tempo. I would thought that we could lead at our slow tempo. Until two minutes of the game, I thought we were going to win it."

Although the Owls are 1-9 in the SWC and 1-10 overall, Suits said he thinks is improving with each game.

"I think our guys are better in the last two games," Suits said, "but not as good because of interference in physical talent. If our guards can't get their composure group every time they go to court, then I think we'll be to play our slow game."

Naualls, who had 10 points and five assists for the Aggies, he and his teammates had confidence — even when they were down by two points.

"It got tight, but I was confident."
