"Kenny and Doug are our two best outside shooters, and they're the most effective against the zone," Metcalf said. Texas A&M didn't score until the 13:57 mark of the first half — but it really didn't matter. TCU could only manage four points in that same span. Still, the Aggies had six team fouls by the time they scored their first points, and things looked sloppy, if not grim.

The two teams stayed close until the 9:11 mark of the second half, when Doug Arnold's jumper put the Frogs on top at 45-44.

Roberts and Brown then went to work to give the Aggies the win.

Women swimmers finish fourth in SWC meet

From staff and wire reports

The Texas A&M women's swim team placed fourth in the Southwest Conference Meet held Thursday, Friday and Saturday on the University of Texas campus.

Paced by 1 SWC record, 11 school records and 5 NCAA championship meet qualifying times, the women swam to a surprise finish behind Texas, Houston and SMU.

Texas piled up 799 points, far ahead of runner-up Houston's 444 and third-place SMU's 294.5. Texas won 18 of 24 events during the three-day meet.

Texas A&M's 200-yard freestyle relay team of Melanie Schmauch, Susan Marks, Eileen Doull and Jody Tanner finished first in Friday's competition with a time 1:35.61. Their finish was the fifth fastest time recorded in the nation this year in that event. It was also a SWC record and a school record.

Also on Friday, the 400-yard medley relay team of Edlyn Bell, Vickie Moir, Schmauch and Tanner finished third with a time of 3:57.20, setting a school record and qualifying as a USS (United States Swimming) Senior National time.

The Aggies had 6 USS qualifying times. Texas A&M broke five school records on Saturday, including Schmauch's seventh place finish in the 100-yard freestyle and Tanner's third finish in the 50-yard backstroke.

Tanner qualified for the NCAA meet with a 27.65 time in that event.

Moir and Tanner each set another school record with their times in the 200-yard backstroke and the 100-yard individual medley, respectively.

The 400-yard freestyle relay team finished second with a time of 3:27.83. This is made up of Doull, Marks, Schmauch and Tanner. They qualified for the NCAA meet event, also.

UT's Kim Lineham shattered the women's collegiate record in the 1,650-yard freestyle relay night to help the Longhorns to victory.

Lineham's time of 16:02.34 set last year by Marjorie Linzmeier of Stanford and also broke the Texas Swimming Center mark in the event more than 21 seconds.

Among the other Texas winners Saturday night were Jill Stierkel in the 100-yard freestyle (49.88) and Joan Pennington in the 100-yard individual medley (57.13).

The men's SWC Championships will be held Thursday through Sunday, also in Austin.
