Brief Affairs: The latest of the Campus Theater's Triple-X presentations. A real "sleeper" of a movie.

MSC Aggie Cinema 845-1515

Road Warrior: Mel Gibson stars in this futuristic look of the world where oil has become the most precious commodity around. Sunday 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theater. R.

The King and I: Based on the Rogers and Hammerstein hit play. This classic musical stars Yul Brynner and Deborah Kerr in a matchup sure to delight all audiences. Wednesday 7:30 p.m. Rudder Theater. G.

Plitt Cinema I&II 846-6714

Gandhi: The film traces 56 of the 79 years of Mahatma Gandhi's life. Gandhi was a man from India whose efforts on behalf of his people won him the designation of "Great Soul." It's a must to see this portrayal of a legend. PG.

Raiders of the Lost Ark: An adventure classic starring everybody's favorite Harrison Ford. Definitely go see it (again)! PG.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: Join Janet (Susan Sarandon) and Brad as they experience numerous interesting events after they meet Frankenfurter, a transsexual. R. Midnight.

Manor East 823-8300

The Man From Snowy River: Kirk Douglas stars in this western about a boy suddenly alone in the world who helps a girl struggling with life. In Dolby Stereo. PG.

Spring Break: This is a summer teen film upgraded for college students. It glorifies the pursuits of four young men on the beaches of Ft. Lauderdale. You will either laugh or cry at this amazing film. R.

The Outsiders: Based on the adolescent novel by S.E. Hinton, this film stars the teen heartthrob Matt Dillon, most recently of the Disney film Tex. In Dolby Stereo. PG.

The Thing: A frozen alien in the Arctic wasteland thaws and comes to life to kill the scientists studying it in this sci-fi thriller. Midnight. PG.

Post Oak: 764-0616

Tootsie: Dustin Hoffman stars as an unemployed actor who impersonates a woman to land an acting job on a soap opera. He gets the job and then the fun begins. PG.

Max Dugan Returns: This is the latest of the Neil Simon series of films. It — of course — stars his favorite actress Marsha Mason. She plays a woman who is down and out until the man of her life, Max Dugan, returns with a fortune. They live happily ever after. PG.

Eddie Macon's Run: The Dukes of Hazard goes to the movie screen. John Schneider and Kirk Douglas (yes, the Kirk Douglas) co-star in this southern chase movie. PG.

Schulman Six 775-2468

E.T.: An alien from a distant planet is stranded on earth by his mother ship and hidden by a small boy. The two become good friends and the boy helps the creature in his quest to "phone home." PG.

The Black Stallion Returns: This is the second installment of the Black Stallion series. If you liked the first you will love the second. PG.

Joystick: One of the many Porky's clones. High school was never like this. Stars Joe Don Baker from Walking Tall and Scott McGinnis. R.

Tough Enough: This is the story of an unemployed worker who turns to boxing to earn his living. No this is not a Rocky movie and it does not star Sylvester Stallone. PG.

High Road to China: This is Tom Selleck's big screen debut. This adventure film has little adventure for the viewer and falls flat as a good ol' Saturday matinee movie. This attempt also co-stars the lovely Bess Armstrong — definitely not one of her stronger roles. PG.

The Year of Living Dangerously: This romantic adventure, starring Mel Gibson, is set against the background of war in Indonesia. PG.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

Madmen: Another of the gore movies that seem to have overpopulated the movie scene since Friday the 13th. For a good hatchet job this a definite must. R.

Eye for Eye: Another karate film from Chuck Norris. Plenty of action for those karate fans. R.

Alone in the Dark: Yes, you guessed it — another slasher movie for the fans of gore. These poor victims are alone in the dark and you should be too, if you go see this horror flick. R.

Beyond the Dark: If you can imagine it, this film has gone beyond the dark into oblivion. Again — another feature for the fans of gore. R.
