Campus Theater
846-6512

Lords of Discipline: Another fine movie that was spawned from the Taps tradition. It is still worth seeing. R.

MSC Cepheid
Variable:
845-1515

Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea This Jules Verne story prophesizes the atomic age through the adventures of Captain Nemo and his submarine The Nautilus. Kirk Douglas and Peter Lorre head up the cast. G. 7:30 p.m. and 9:45 p.m. Thursday, 701 Rudder.

Plitt Cinema
I&II
846-6714

Gandhi: The film traces 56 of the 79 years of Mahatma Gandhi's life. Gandhi was a man from India whose efforts on behalf of his people won him the designation of "Great Soul." It's a must to see this portrayal of a legend. PG.

Raiders of the Lost Ark: An adventure classic starring everybody's favorite Harrison Ford. Definitely go see it (again)! PG.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: Join Janet (Susan Sarandon) and Brad as they experience numerous interesting events after they meet Frankenfurter, a transexual. R. Midnight.

Enter the Dragon: One of the endless Bruce Lee movies that shows us just how exciting karate can be. A real cinematographic effort. R. Midnight.

MSC Aggie
Cinema
845-1515

I Ought to be in Pictures Unfortunately it is not Neil Simon's best effort but is definitely worth seeing if for no other reason than it doesn't star Simon's wife, Marsha Mason. This comedy stars Walter Matthau. PG. 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Rudder Theater.

The Outlaws is Coming This classic from the Three Stooges beautifully illustrates the trio's ability to satire everything around them — even the Old West. PG. Midnight, Friday and Saturday, Rudder Theater.

The Bicycle Thief A classic of modern theater because of its scope into Neo-Realism. Unrated. 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Rudder Theater.

Citizen Kane This cinematic classic is considered to be one of the finest American films ever made. Orson Welles both directed and starred in this film. Make plans to go see it. Unrated. 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Rudder Theater.

Manor East
823-8300

The Man From Snowy River: Kirk Douglas stars in this western about a boy suddenly alone in the world who helps a girl struggling with life. In Dolby Stereo. PG.

Spring Break: This is a summer teen film upgraded for college students. It glorifies the pursuits of four young men on the beaches of Ft. Lauderdale. You will either laugh or cry at this amazing film. R.

The Outsiders: Based on the adolescent novel by S.E. Hinton, this film stars the teen heartthrob Matt Dillon, most recently of the Disney film Tex. In Dolby Stereo. PG.

48Hours: Eddie Murphy and Nick Nolte star in this detective drama/comedy. R. Midnight.

Post Oak:
764-0616

Tootsie: Dustin Hoffman stars as an unemployed actor who impersonates a woman to land an acting job on a soap opera. He gets the job and then the fun begins. PG.

Max Dugan Returns: This is the latest of the Neil Simon series of films. It — of course — stars his favorite actress Marsha Mason. She plays a woman who is down and out until the man of her life, Max Dugan, returns with a fortune. They live happily ever after. PG.

Sophie's Choice: It is finally here! Meryl Streep stars in this fine film — it should head the list of films to see this season. Critics say that Streep is going to win an Oscar for this bravo performance. R.

Schulman Six
775-2468

E.T.: An alien from a distant planet is stranded on earth by his mother ship and hidden by a small boy. The two become good friends and the boy helps the creature in his quest to "phone home." PG.

The Black Stallion Returns:

This is the second installment of the Black Stallion series. If you liked the first you will love the second. PG.

Joystick: One of the many Porky's clones. High school was never like this. Stars Joe Don Baker from Walking Tall and Scott McGinnis. R.

Tough Enough: This is the story of an unemployed worker who turns to boxing to earn his living. No this is not a Rocky movie and it does not star Sylvester Stallone. PG.

High Road to China: This is Tom Selleck's big screen debut. This adventure film has little adventure for the viewer and falls flat as a good ol' Saturday matinee movie. This attempt also co-stars the lovely Bess Armstrong — definitely not one of her stronger roles. PG.

The Year of Living Dangerously: This romantic adventure, starring Mel Gibson, is set against the background of war in Indonesia. PG.

Skyway Twin Drive-In 822-3300

Teen Lust: This wonderful film reverses the traditional role of lust. This time the women chase the men. If it's a choice between the movie and washing your clothes — wash your clothes — they probably smell like the movie. R.

Baby Doll: Another midnight lust film. Here if it's a choice between this movie and washing your clothes..... R.

Spring Fever: Susan Anton stars in this over-hyped film. If you want to see the leggy Susan then go see this movie. R.

Cannonball Run: Smokey (Burt Reynolds) gets a new girl (Farrah Fawcett) and then the chase begins. This film might be renamed Smokey and the Bandit meet Beauty or Goodbye Sally Fields. In all seriousness this film is mildly amusing and almost entertaining. R.

On the cover: After the recent humor supplements and parodies of The Battalion came out, the At Ease staff thought you might be wondering — just how is a newspaper produced? How much time does it take? How many people contribute to each issue? We think we've provided all of the answers. And if we haven't someone will probably let us know.
