

'Spud' signs with NC State

United Press International
Anthony "Spud" Webb, a 5-foot-6 guard with the ability to slam-dunk, said Monday that he will sign a conference letter of intent today to play at NCAA champion North Carolina State. Webb was a first team Junior College All-America at Midland College and led the team to the national JC championship his freshman year. The team was 65-8 during his two years in Midland.

Webb, who averaged 16 points a game the past season, said he chose NC State over Bradley because he liked the Raleigh, N.C., campus and head coach Jim Valvano.

Webb attracted national attention as a 5-foot-4 high school senior at Wilmer-Hutchins, south of Dallas, with his dunking ability.

In other signings Monday, Baylor coach Jim Haller announced that 7-foot-1 John Wheeler of Cleveland State University will transfer to Baylor to complete his remaining two years of eligibility.

Wheeler, a graduate of Dallas' Lincoln High School, will enroll in Baylor this fall but cannot play for the Bears until the 1984-85 season under NCAA transfer rules.

Troubled with injuries at Cleveland State, Wheeler played in only 11 games his freshman year before being sidelined with leg injuries. His sophomore season he suffered a stress fracture in his left foot and played only five minutes all year.

Southern Methodist coach Dave Bliss said Monday that Johnny Fuller, a 6-foot-1 guard who averaged 24 points for Wilmer-Hutchins, had signed a letter of intent to play college ball at SMU.

In other SWC news, golfers Brandel Chamblee of Texas and Amy Benz of SMU were voted the Southwest Conference male and female athletes of the week Monday by the nine SWC schools.

Chamblee, a junior from Irving, was the individual medalist at this weekend's SWC men's golf tournament at Columbia Lakes.

Posting rounds of 74 and 69, Chamblee entered Sunday's final round in a tie for the lead with Houston's Billy Tuten.

Benz was also a medalist last week, taking top honors in the Lady Sun Devil Invitational in Phoenix, Ariz. The 1982 AIAW medalist, Benz totaled 221 during the 54-hole tournament with rounds of 72, 74 and 75.

A member of the U.S. Curtis Cup team, Benz also helped SMU to the team title in Phoenix, as the Lady Mustangs edged SWC opponent TCU, 905 to 912.

Phillies' Denny stops Chicago, 8-2

United Press International
John Denny won his first game since last July 9, seven months and seven starts after the Philadelphia Phillies acquired him. And he did it without his best stuff.

Denny, acquired by the Phillies from Cleveland, scattered eight hits while Gary Matthews and Mike Schmidt sparked a three-run third inning with home runs Monday night, lifting Philadelphia to an 8-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

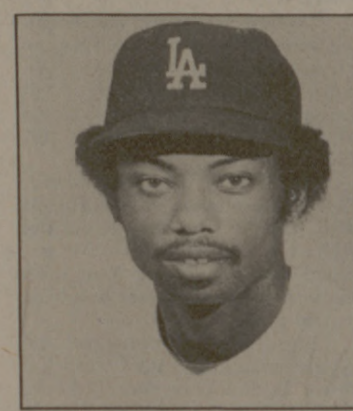

"It was cold (44 degrees) and I couldn't get real loose," said Denny, 1-0. "But sometimes you don't need your best stuff to win, especially when you get runs like that."

Denny was 0-2 in four starts for the Phillies in the last three weeks of the 1982 season.

"It can have a psychological effect if you allow it to," Denny said of the drought. "It's just like anything else. But the pressure is what you make of it. I felt good all during spring training and I knew it would be a matter of time before I put a good game together. Now I hope I can continue."

Denny allowed both Chicago runs in the first but settled down and held the Cubs to just two hits in the final five innings as he recorded the Phillies' first complete game of the year.

Matthews' solo home run, a shot over the center field wall, and Schmidt's two-run blast (his fourth), a towering fly that barely cleared the fence in left, gave Denny all the help he needed.

Derrel Thomas scores final run in Dodgers' 4-3 victory

Pete Rose sparked a three-run fourth with a two-run triple.

"The long ball hurt us and we couldn't get the key hits," Chicago manager Lee Elia said. "In cold weather, the veterans really have an edge because they know how to handle themselves."

Paul Moskau, making his first appearance of the season, took the loss.

Elsewhere in the NL, San Diego bombarded Atlanta, 10-3, and Los Angeles nipped San Francisco, 4-3.

PADRES 10, BRAVES 3 — At San Diego, Gene Richards' two-run single highlighted a four-run second inning and Steve Garvey added a solo home run to power a 15-hit attack and pace the Padres.

DODGERS 4, GIANTS 3 —

At San Francisco, Ken LaReaux' bases-loaded, one-out grounder to second base in the ninth inning scored Derrel Thomas to snap a 3-3 and tie the Dodgers. Tom Niedenfeng won the victory in his first start and Dave Stewart, the fifth Angeles pitcher, earned the third save.

Kuenn's Brewers rock Boston 14-0 at Fenway

United Press International
The Milwaukee Brewers, whose hitting last year earned them the name "Harvey's Wall-bangers," had Boston's pitchers punch drunk Monday.

The defending American League champions, managed by Harvey Kuenn, exploded like a warm bottle of beer that had been shaken up, banging out 22 hits in a 14-0 rout of the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park.

"The best thing is this shows we don't just live by the long ball," Kuenn said of their homerless effort, during which the Brewers set a club record with 10 hits in a seven-run ninth inning. They also equaled a club mark with the 22 hits. "We didn't hit a ball out of the park and we scored a lot of runs. We were aggressive on the bases ... that made me very happy."

The Red Sox, who haven't scored a run in their last 25 innings, were limited to a leadoff double by Wade Boggs and five singles, while Milwaukee battered three Boston hurlers.

Red Sox manager Ralph Houk seemed hung over from watching baseballs rocketing around Fenway Park.

"I've never seen so many hits fall in," Houk said. "Every club has days like this."

Don Sutton and Tom Tellman combined on a six-hit shut-out and Charlie Moore paced the attack with four hits and three RBIs.

Sutton, 2-1, pitched seven innings and yielded all six hits, walking two and striking out two. Tellman worked the final two innings, allowing only one walk.

In other AL games, Baltimore downed Cleveland, 4-1, New York blanked Toronto, 3-0, Minnesota topped Cleveland, 5, and Oakland nipped Cincinnati, 5-3.

ORIOLES 4, INDIANS
At Baltimore, Jim Dwyer led his first home run of the season and Scott McGregg's first game of the year as the Orioles, Dwyer broke the tie leading off the fifth with a solo homer.

YANKEES 3, BLUE JAYS
At New York, Ron Guidry fired his sixth career two-run and Jerry Humphrey tripped two runs to help the Yankees' 60th anniversary of opening of Yankee Stadium. Guidry, 1-1, pitched his complete game this season.

TWINS 8, MARINERS
At Minneapolis, Randy Johnson cracked a two-run double and Jerry Hatcher added a pair of singles and Kent Hrbek slugged an RBI triple to lead the Twins to a 5-3 victory.

A's 5, ANGELS 3
Anaheim, Calif., Mike Krukow's two-run single sparked a run third inning and Underwood went six innings to pick up his first victory of the year to lead Oakland. California's Reggie Jackson hit a homer in the ninth for the fourth in as many days.
