Perez, Phillies bomb Astros, 11-3

United Press International
Tony Perez may turn out to be the best investment in Philadelphia since cream cheese.

The 40-year-old Perez, whom many baseball scouts thought was washed up after he hit only .260 in 69 games for the Boston last season, was purchased by the Phillies during the offseason to be used primarily as a pinch hitter.

However, with injuries to several regulars crippling the Philadelphia in the early going, Perez has gotten plenty of opportunity to play and has performed far better than expected.

Perez drove in five runs with a homer, single, double and sacrifice fly Sunday to spark an 11-1 romp over the Houston Astros and boosted his National League-leading batting average to .391.

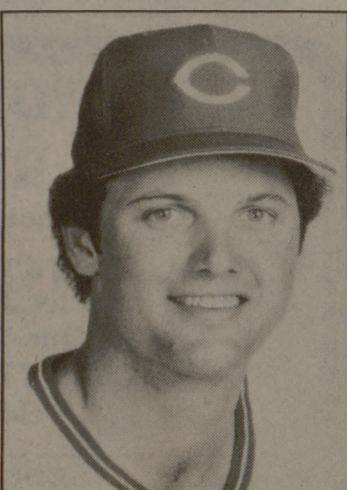

Perez singled home Joe Morgan in the first to give the Phillies and Larry Christenson a 1-0 lead then delivered a sacrifice fly to finish off a four-run third-inning explosion.

Elsewhere in the National League, Atlanta downed New York 2-1, St. Louis edged San Francisco 10-9, Los Angeles nipped Chicago 3-2 in a rain-shortened game and Montreal edged Cincinnati 5-4 then lost to San Diego at Pittsburgh was skated out.

EXPOS 5-3, REDS 4-6 — At Montreal, Tim Wallach hit his second triple of the game and scored the tie-breaking run on the left. Warren Cromartie's sacrifice fly fed the sixth inning to give Montreal the first game victory. In the nightcap, Ron Oester tripled some two runs in a three-run sixth inning that enabled the Expos to gain a split. Johnny Bench homered for Cincinnati with Andre Dawson homered Montreal in the opener.

BRAVES 2, METS 1 — At New York, Bob Horner doubled Dale Murphy with the go-ahead run in the sixth inning to lead the Braves to victory behind the combined five-hit pitching of Phil Niekro and Steve Bedrojan. Phil Niekro, 1-2, was the winner and Tom Seaver, 1-2, took the loss.

CARDINALS 10, GIANTS 9 — At St. Louis, Willie McGee hit a three-run homer and Barry Bonnell belted a grand slam to cap an eight-run seventh for the Cardinals to victory. Ken Oberkfell went 3-for-4, including two triples, drove in a run and scored twice for the Cardinals.

— At St. Louis, Willie McGee hit a three-run homer and Barry Bonnell belted a grand slam to cap an eight-run seventh for the Cardinals to victory. Ken Oberkfell went 3-for-4, including two triples, drove in a run and scored twice for the Cardinals.

DODGERS 3, CUBS 2 — At Chicago, Pedro Guerrero and Greg Brock drove in first-inning runs to lead the Dodgers to victory in a game that was called after a delay of one hour and 30 minutes in the top of the sixth inning. Dave Stewart, 1-0, pitched two scoreless innings in relief to get the triumph and Ferguson Jenkins, 1-3, took the loss.

In American League action, Toronto blanked Chicago 3-0, Milwaukee defeated Minnesota 8-4, Cleveland nipped Kansas City 2-1, New York defeated Texas 8-4, Boston edged California 10-9, Baltimore beat Seattle 8-2 and Oakland swept a double-header from Detroit 8-3 and 2-0.

BREWERS 8, TWINS 4 — At Minneapolis, Robin Yount hit a three-run homer to highlight a six-run ninth, pacing the Brewers. Yount's homer off loser Al Williams, 2-2, came after Paul Molitor singled in Charlie Moore with two outs to break a 2-2 tie. Don Sutton, 4-1, allowed just five hits in eight innings.

INDIANS 2, ROYALS 1 — At Kansas City, Mo., Mike Fishlin doubled in the tying run and scored the winner on Pat Tabler's single in the Indians' eighth. Lary Sorensen won his second straight after an 0-3 start.

BLUE JAYS 8, WHITE SOX 0 — At Toronto, Dave Stieb tossed a three-hitter and Barry Bonnell belted a grand slam to cap an eight-run seventh for the Blue Jays. Stieb, who led the AL in 1982 with five shutouts and 19 complete games, posted his first shutout and fourth straight complete game.

YANKEES 8, RANGERS 4 — At Arlington, Texas, Jerry Mumphrey had three hits, including a homer and an RBI single, and Ken Griffey added a pair of doubles to highlight a 15-hit Yankees' attack.

ORIOLES 8, MARINERS 2 — At Seattle, Ken Singleton's three-run homer capped a five-run first and Eddie Murray drove in four runs with a pair of singles for the Orioles. Storm Davis, 1-0, was the winner and Tippy Martinez recorded his second save. Gaylord Perry, 23, took the loss.

Sixers eliminate Knicks

United Press International
The New York Knicks did their best, but it wasn't good enough.

"We did all we could," said Knicks forward Truck Robinson after the Philadelphia 76ers eliminated his club with a 105-102 victory in Game 4 at New York. Robinson contributed 17 points and 15 rebounds.

It had to be considered a moral victory to New York for the Knicks to have pressed the 76ers at all. In their first year under coach Hubie Brown, the Knicks came up with a strong second half of the regular season and swept New Jersey in the opening playoff mini-series.

For Philadelphia, the center of the scoring punch was Moses Malone, who despite painful knees scored 23 of his 29 points in the second half. Malone also grabbed 14 rebounds, scored 14 fourth-quarter points and blocked two shots in the closing minutes. Malone averaged over 30 points per game in the series.

With the score 90-90, Reggie Johnson hit two free throws with five minutes left to put Philadelphia ahead to stay. New York closed to 94-92 and had a chance to tie, but Malone blocked Robinson's shot and Maurice Cheeks responded with a basket to hike the margin to 96-92. After Rory Sparrow scored for New York, Malone sank a fade-away and two foul shots to make it 100-94.

BUCKS 107, CELTICS 99 — At Milwaukee, Sidney Moncrief scored 26 points and Marques Johnson added 22 to help the Bucks overpower the Celtics.

Milwaukee entered the fourth quarter with an 83-81 lead and snapped an 87-87 tie when Johnson converted a three-point play to put Milwaukee ahead for good.

TRAIL BLAZERS 108, LAKERS 95 — At Portland, Ore., Jim Paxson scored 20 points and Darnell Valentine added 18 to keep the Blazers alive. Portland built a 12-point lead in the first quarter and extended that to 54-32 with 5:39 left in the first half. Los Angeles — leading in the series 3-1 now — surged to within nine points with 2:20 left in the third quarter on a layup by Magic Johnson, but the Lakers could pull no closer than 10 points in the final period.

CLEANING UP YOUR ACT

With less than two weeks of school remaining, it is time to begin preparing to move out of your apartment. You should have already submitted a 30 day written notice to your apartment manager expressing your intent to vacate. The next step is to clean your apartment in accordance with the manager's move-out cleaning instructions. Most apartment managers will provide a list of cleaning guidelines. This list will identify the specific areas and appliances which must be cleaned prior to moving out.

At this time, you should also make an appointment with your manager to jointly inspect the apartment. Because the management needs to inspect all apartment units, it is very important that you be prompt and ready for inspection at the time of your scheduled appointment. This includes referring to your Move-In Condition Form that you completed at the beginning of your lease term. The form will enable you to compare the condition of your apartment at move-in to its present condition. Ask the manager to sign and date the form, and remember to keep a copy for your records. In the event that the manager is unable to inspect the apartment with you, your best protection is to have an impartial witness verify the apartment's condition. If you feel there may be a problem, you should take photographs.

Be sure to provide your forwarding address IN WRITING. The management is allowed 30 days to refund your security deposit or to provide an itemized list of deductions. If you do not hear from the management within 30 days, notify your owner/manager and request an explanation. If you are unsatisfied with the response, contact either the Off Campus Center (in Puryear Hall) 845-1741, or the Students' Legal Advisors (in the YMCA Building) 845-5821.

LOOKING FOR ROOMMATES

...for the upcoming summer sessions and/or fall semester? The Off Campus Center is holding roommate sessions on May 3, 4, 5, 9, and 10 at 2 p.m. in Rudder Tower. If you have housing and need a roommate, or if you need both housing and roommates, try to attend one of the sessions. For more information, contact the Off Campus Center in Puryear hall or call, 845-1741.

Bon Voyage! See Ya Next Fall
