Campus Theater
846-6512

High Road to China: An adventure film with as little adventure for the viewer as a good ol' Saturday matinee movie. Stars Tom Selleck in his big screen debut. PG.

Debbie Does Dallas: A classic of the porn flicks. A great way to complete this semester's education. XXX.

MSC Aggie Cinema
845-1515

Piranhacon: The Spawning. It lives again. This year's Piranhacon features four dogs. At 9:00 p.m. the fun begins with She Gods of Shark Reef continuing with Muscle Beach Party at approximately 10:15. The hilarity goes on with Hot Rod Gang at midnight and continues at 1:30 a.m. with the clencher of the series — Girls in Chains. If you can sit through all four of these classic movies, Aggie Cinema will give you a full refund. Friday. Grove.

MSC Cepheid
Variable:
845-1515

No Movie: Finals week.

Plitt Cinema I&II
846-6714

The Meaning of Life: Monty Python's latest contribution to the American movie scene. It promises to be even funnier than any of the previous MP movies. Be sure and see this representation of British humor. R.

Rocky Horror Picture Show: What happens when the all-American couple meets a transsexual? Watch this classic cult film and find out. Midnight. R.

One Theater will be closed for Remodeling:

Manor East
823-8300

The Man From Snowy River: Kirk Douglas stars in this western about a boy suddenly alone in the world who helps a girl struggling with life. In Dolby stereo. PG.

Valley Girl: Like, first, there was a song. Then, like, millions of books and, like, now the movie — fer sure. This is, you know, the latest effort to chronicle the life of the Valley Girl (ohmigod!). R. How Grody.

Still Smoking: Cheech and Chong's latest cinematic effort. If you like C and C, you will like this picture and if you don't you will probably not find this film very amusing. R.

Post Oak:
764-0616

Rocky III: The third and hopefully last of the Rocky series. Contains all of the elements that made the first two films a success. R.

Blue Thunder: Roy Scheider plays the pilot of a new military helicopter designed for riot control. A special sneak preview will be held on Saturday night. R.

Doctor Detroit: The latest Dan Akroyd movie is here. It is about a mild-mannered school professor who transforms himself into Doctor Detroit in the evenings. R.

Schulman Six
775-2468

Lone Wolf Mcquade: This is a Chuck Norris and David Carradine film. If there is any reason for seeing this movie, it's because these two are in a film rated less than R. PG.

Tootsie: Dustin Hoffman stars in a funny and campy story about a New York actor who has trouble finding employment because of his perfectionist nature. He has the last laugh when he plays his most difficult role ever — an actress. PG.

Something Wicked This Way Comes: Ray Bradbury wrote the text to this exciting new science-fantasy film. Come see what happens when Mr. Dark visits Green Town. PG.

Porky's: The original of the current wave of adolescent films. The plot is definitely unbelievable, but the movie manages to contain small amounts of humor in various places. R.

Off The Wall: A comedy and this one is certainly as the title suggests. R.

Gandhi: The film traces 56 of the 79 years of Mahatma Gandhi's life. Gandhi was a man from India whose efforts on behalf of his people won him the designation of "Great Soul." It's a must to see this portrayal of a legend. This film won Oscars for best director, best film and best actor — among others. PG.

Skyway Twin Drive-In
822-3300

Hunger: David Bowie leads the cast in this horror-fantasy film about a woman from another place (and time) and a vampire. Susan Sarandon also has a role. R.

Max Dugan Returns: Neil Simon's latest effort. The story is a distressed woman (Marsha Mason) whose life changes when her father returns. R.

Deadly Blessing: Guess what? This is another of the approximately 3,046 slasher movies. The plot goes something like slash, cut and kill. R.

Without a Trace: The story of a mother frantically searching for her son who vanished one day without a trace. R.
