Aggies receive Gulf scholarships

Sherwin D. Hudson, a junior petroleum engineering major from Beaumont and Ginger Barth, a junior geophysics major from Souderton, Pa., have been awarded Gulf Honors Scholarships.

The scholarships provide for 80 percent of all tuition and room and board costs, guarantees the students summer jobs with Gulf between their junior and senior years and gives the Petroleum Engineering and Geophysics Departments at Texas A&M a $1,000 unrestricted grant.

Youth center discussed

The College Station Parks and Community Center staffs will hold a brown bag lunch seminar Friday at 12:15 p.m. to discuss the possibility of converting an old school building into a community center for youth and teens.

College Station teenagers, their parents and other interested citizens are invited to bring a sack lunch to the Community Center on 1300 Jersey St. to discuss plans for the center.

Sherrill enters cattle business

Coach Jackie Sherrill and entertainer Bob Hope shared top billing at the Angus and Brangus high society cattle auction at Houston's Shamrock Hilton Saturday. The black-tie auction was held by the Granada Corporation, which is headed by Texas A&M Regent David Eller of Houston.

Sherrill purchased $40,000 worth of cattle and proceeds from one of the evenings auctions were given to Texas A&M.

Singing groups to hold auditions

All four Texas A&M vocal groups will hold auditions Aug. 29 through Sept. 9.

The groups are the Century Singers — a mixed choir, the Reveillers — a mixed jazz ensemble, the Singing Cadets — an all male group and the Women's Chorus.

Interested students may sign up for auditions between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. beginning Monday in room 003 in the Memorial Student Center. For more information call 845-5974.

To submit an item for this column come by the Battalion office in 216 Reed McDonald or call 845-2611.

Everyday prices at TSO are lower than most advertised "discount" prices.

Compare price, compare quality — you cannot beat the values on prescription eyewear at TSO. And that's true for all TSO eyewear, including famous designer frames.
