

Walker-less Dogs look good in 19-8 win

United Press International
Herschel Walker was present in Georgia didn't need him. The Bulldogs' 1982 Heisman Trophy winner watched from the stands, as defensive back Charlie Dean raced 69 yards with a pass interception for the winning touchdown with 18 seconds to play Saturday night. The Bulldogs, who led 12-0 in the second half, moved for a first down at the Bulldogs' 32. But Dean picked off a Rick Neuheisel pass at the Georgia 31-yard line and raced down the right sideline into the endzone. "It was really a relief to see Charlie Dean take the ball and run down the field," said Georgia Coach Vince Dooley, who turned 51 moments before the touchdown. "It was a great birthday present."

Dean's interception was one of eight turnovers in a game played by steady rain.

"In a game like this, with the rain, you have to expect to turn the ball over," UCLA Coach Terry Donahue said. "That was a major factor in the outcome. We had a lot of chances to win, but we just weren't quite able to get the job done."

Georgia built its early lead on two field goals by Kevin Butler — a 26-yarder six minutes into the first quarter and a 32-yarder on the second play of the second quarter — and Williams' touchdown run.

But UCLA, catching fire on the passing of Neuheisel, drove from its own 20 to the Georgia 10 before settling for a 32-yard field goal by John Lee with 1:12 left in the first half, and then added a 35-yard Lee field goal just as the half ended.

Georgia, had a fourth down at its own 15 and punter Chip Andrews deliberately ran out of the endzone for a safety that cut the margin to 12-8.

In other games Saturday, No. 15 Pittsburgh downed Tennessee 13-3, No. 7 Florida St. edged East Carolina 47-46, Florida handled No. 19 Miami (Fla.) 28-3, No. 10 North Carolina beat South Carolina 24-8, No. 17 Southern Methodist defeated Louisville 24-6, West Virginia blasted Ohio 55-3, Clemson bounced Western Carolina 44-10, Northern Illinois upset Kansas 37-34, Kentucky whipped Central Michigan 31-14, Pacific clipped Oregon 21-15 and Air Force crushed Colorado St. 34-13.

At Knoxville, Tenn., Eric Schubert kicked two fourth-quarter field goals and John Cummings rifled a 56-yard touchdown pass to Dwight Collins to lead the Panthers.

At Tallahassee, Fla., Kelly Lowery threw for three touchdowns, including the go-ahead score with 5:59 left in the game, and Greg Allen ran for three more TDs to lead Florida State.

At Gainesville, Fla., Wayne Peace flipped a pair of short touchdown passes to fullback Joe Henderson the first two times Florida got the ball to pace the Gators over Miami (Fla.). At Columbia, S.C., Scott Stankavage completed 12-of-14 passes, including a 32-yard touchdown toss to Mark Smith, to lead the Tar Heels.

At Irving, Texas, Lance McIlhenny's seldom-used passing arm produced two critical completions in the second half that enabled the Mustangs to overcome a sluggish start and whip the Cardinals.

At Morgantown, W.Va., Paul Woodside scored 13 points on field goals of 47 and 30 yards and seven extra points, and Tom Gray and Pat Randolph ran for two touchdowns each to pace West Virginia.

At Clemson, S.C., Mike Ep-fly passed for three touchdowns and ran for another and Terrence Flagler rushed for 139 yards to lead the Tigers.

At Lawrence, Kan., Vince Scott's 26-yard field goal with eight seconds left in the game gave Northern Illinois a season-opening upset victory after blowing a 17-point third-quarter lead. Lou Wicks scored twice for the winning Huskies.

At Lexington, Ky., Lawrence "Choo Choo" Lee scored two touchdowns to help Kentucky snap an 11-game winless streak. Lee helped Kentucky break a 14-14 halftime tie with back-to-back touchdowns in the third quarter.

Elway sloppy in opener against bruising Steelers

United Press International
John Elway, Denver's million-dollar rookie quarterback, received a bruising welcome to the NFL Sunday.

But veteran Steve DeBerg, who took over when Elway was injured with an elbow in his NFL debut, completed a 2-yard touchdown pass to Ron Egloff with the ball against the Steelers. Dallas allowed the Steelers to a 14-10 victory at Pittsburgh on the ground during the game.

A statistician noted that Elway was at the helm when Denver scored its first touchdown on a 1-yard run by Sammy Winder, who rushed for 96 yards in four quarters.

But neither Elway nor DeBerg played well against the Steelers' defense.

DeBerg, playing the entire second half, completed just four of eight passes for 35 yards, including the TD. He was sacked three times for 22 yards.

Elway, a Stanford product who was first in the NFL draft last year, was 1-for-8 for 14 yards during the first two quarters.

Under heavy pressure from the Steelers' young and reeked defense, Elway threw an interception, was called for intentional grounding and lost a fumble to lineman Tom Beasley. Elway also was sacked four times for 26 yards.

"I played a heck of a lot better this week than last week," Elway said. "I think I did everything I could do in the first half. I was nervous, but not out of control."

Brown, made little progress toward his goal. He rushed 14 times for 28 yards, leaving him 266 yards short of Simpson's second-place career yardage of 11,236.

But Harris' touchdown was a milestone. It was the 94th TD he has scored in his 12 seasons, giving him sole possession of fourth place on the NFL's all-time touchdowns scored list. He had gone into the game tied with Jim Taylor. Just ahead of Harris is Don Hutson, with 105.

On Saturday, Philadelphia downed San Francisco 22-17. Dallas is at Washington Monday night.

Orioles sweep; lead by 4 1/2

United Press International
After a stirring three-game sweep in Minneapolis, the Orioles are flying high atop the Eastern Division standings.

John Shelby singled in two runs in a three-run eighth inning Sunday, breaking a 5-5 tie and propelling Baltimore to a 9-6 victory over the Minnesota Twins. The victory was Baltimore's 11th in its last 12 games.

After Sunday's action, the Orioles led New York and Detroit by 4 1/2 games and Milwaukee by five in the AL East.

Winner Storm Davis, 12-5, gave up seven hits in seven innings. Tippy Martinez worked the last two innings and notched his 14th save.

Eddie Murray led off the eighth with a double off loser Ron Davis, 3-7, who then walked pinch hitters Al Bumbry and Jim Dwyer to load the bases. John Lowenstein delivered a pinch-hit sacrifice fly to center to bring in Murray with the go-ahead run. Todd Cruz beat out an infield single to reload the bases and Shelby laced a single over second to score Bumbry and Dwyer.

Glenn Gulliver hit a sacrifice fly in the ninth for the Orioles' final run.

The Twins scored their first run in 23 innings when Faedo singled in Dave Engle with two out in the fifth.
